Wing Lake PTO Hears Talk On Delinquency Prevention

Arthur E. Moore, Oakland county probate judge, spoke at the January meeting of the Wing Lake school Parent Teacher's organization on Wednesday evening. His topic was "Prevention of Juvenile Delinquency."

An audience of over 200 parents and teachers felt well repaid for their efforts to come out for this meeting on a night well below zero.

A short business meeting preceded Judge Moore's talk and a question and answer period followed.

Edgar Thorne, PTO president, presided.

The month of February will be a busy month for Wing Lake school PTO members with two activities the same week.

Wednesday, Feb. 20, the regular meeting will be held at which Bloomfield Hills school superintendent Eugene Johnson will speak on the school program and how it is presented.

Mrs. Aino Hill, music teacher, will present a group of Wing Lake students whom she has assisted in an extra-curricular voice club.

Saturday evening of that same week, Feb. 23, the PTO will hold its annual square dance at the high school. Tickets for the dance may be purchased at the Wednesday night meeting and also at the door the night of the dance.

A buffet will be served at the dance as usual but will be served at 11:00 instead of the previous late hour of midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Scherer, of Goldard court, Sodon lake, formerly of Detroit, have accepted their new home for the past month. Scherer is sales engineer for American Radiator and Standard Sanitary Corp.

Both are Michigan State university graduates where he was affiliated with Lambda Chi Alpha and she with Chi Omega.

Mrs. Scherer is a former Detroit public school teacher and was active in the Chi Omega alumni association. They both enjoy skiing and he is a photography enthusiast.
