Berkshires Newcomers Host Detroit Friends in New Home

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Varblow, newcomers to the Berkshires, entertained former Detroit friends in their home on Jackson Park lane Saturday evening.

Later in the evening Mrs. Varblow served a buffet luncheon with a cheerful arrangement of yellow daffodils centering the table. Guests for the get-together were Mr. and Mrs. Victor McBride, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Fenwick, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Coehring, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bewley, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morello and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Small.

The Varblows, moved into their new home last October from Berea, Ohio. Previous to their six years in Berea they lived in Detroit. They have two children, Mary Ann, 16, a Birmingham high school student and Lee, Jr., 13, who attends Derby junior high.

Mary Ann has become quite active in school activities and is an aqua belle at the high school. Lee enjoys all sports and at the present is very enthused about horses and horseback riding. Mr. Varblow attended General Motors Institute and is at present on a special assignment at the engineering center in the Chevrolet division. In his spare time he enjoys bowling. The Varblow family attends the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Keating asked a few neighbors into their home on Jackson Park Lane last week for a little get-together. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Berno, Mr. and Mrs. David Falconer, Mrs. Mort Neff and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reason of Old Mill road.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Desmond recently gave a dinner party in their Sherwood road home for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hoffman. It was the Hoffmans' 20th wedding anniversary. Also present at the dinner were the Hoffmans' daughter, Martha and Desmonds' son, Bob.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Berno of Jackson Park Lane entertained friends, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Murphy from Erie, Pa., Mrs. Murphy spent a week with the Bernos and Mr. Murphy joined them for the weekend. While here, they celebrated their wedding anniversary.

The Bernos entertained them at a cocktail and dinner party. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Keating, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Varblow, Mr. and Mrs. Mort Neff and Mr. and Mrs. David Falconer.

The Murphys were former neighbors of the Bernos in Canton, Ohio.

Mrs. Robert Reason of Old Mill road entertained her bridge club last Thursday evening. After an evening of bridge Mrs. Reason served a candlelight buffet luncheon.

Guests were Mrs. Donald R. Borgeson, Mrs. Harry Phelps, Mrs. Robert Charlton, Mrs. Robert Harris, Mrs. Daniel W. Piro, Mrs. Bruce Charlesworth and Mrs. Roger Sackett.

Jana Berno, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Berno of Jackson Park Lane celebrated her 14th birthday Saturday by having a toboggan

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Allerton, Sr., residents at 11717 Southview Blvd. A son, Richard, a student at Ferris Institute Technical school was his home with the Allertons.

Mr. Allerton, a member of Rotary, Masonic, Commandery and High Twelve, has practiced law in Highland Park for 35 years and is a avid golfer.

The Allertons have two grandchildren who are Mrs. Allerton's greatest interest. Son Hugh Allerton, Jr., of Hillcrest is in practice with his father.

Connie Parsons of Beausfield was hostess to a group of girls from Derby junior high Saturday. After the serious business of the afternoon, (practice for a play which they will present to other students at the school) the girls practiced for proficiency in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jorgensen of 13 Mile road were hosts for a buffet dinner for 10 guests from the Birmingham area Saturday night. The Jorgensens were celebrating their 23rd wedding anniversary which was on January 14.

Guests spent the evening dancing and playing charades. On Feb. 8, the Jorgensens will sail from New York aboard the Homeric for a 20-day cruise of the Caribbean.

Dave Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Zehnder of Devonshire, is a student at St. Andrews, Episcopal school, at St. Andrews, Tenn. Dave is enthusiastic and happy with his new school, but Dave's former newspaper customers are missing him.

David Hasse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Hasse of Devonshire, was recently appointed engineer for Troy. Mr. Hasse is a graduate of Baldwin high school, now an elementary school, and the University of Detroit.

Bridge was the diversion for the evening Saturday when Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Ritze, Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Whittlesey were guests in the Bedford home of the Donald Kalmback.

Mr. and Mrs. Kalmback will be hosts for a family party over the weekend. Mrs. Kalmback's brother and his wife and two children will visit here from Grand Rapids. Of special interest to the family will be the presence of Lt. Philip Crow, on leave from the air force base at San Antonio, Texas.

Kenneth Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell of Kibrook, attended the winter Klondike at the Pontiac recreation area on Saturday. Kenneth is a member of Explorer Post B-1 and he, with the other boys from his post, acted as judge of the skills acquired by scouts from other troops. Kenneth will receive his God and Country award on Sunday.

A number of area residents took advantage of the cold weather and flooded back yards for skating rinks. One such rink, at the James W. Shank Warwick home, was the scene for a skating party for a few friends of Katherine Shank. After their skating, Robyn Andersen, Susan Whittlesey, Pat Harke and Betty Lakatos were guests for dinner.
