MRS. ROBERT LEE ISAACSON

Susan J. Doherty Wed In Presbyterian Rites

Seven attendants in American beauty red velvet gowns preceded Susan Jane Doherty down the aisle of First Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon when she became the bride of Robert Lee Isaacson.

The Rev. Dr. Glen Harris solemnized the double ring rites uniting Susan and Robert in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd R. Doherty of Kenmesaw road, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Isaacson of Detroit are parents of the groom.

A BRIDAL gown of white antique silk was Susan's choice for her wedding day. Designed with long sleeves and chapel train, it featured a square neckline collared with sequins and seed pearls and the same detail was repeated at the pannered hipline.

Her finger tip veil of French illusion cascaded from a headpiece of seed pearls and sequins and she carried a floral arrangement of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Nancy Doherty was honor maid for her sister, and another sister, Mary Kate, was junior bridesmaid. Also attending the bride were Martha Redner of Battle Creek, Betty Sykes of Chicago, and Jane Mc-Daniel, Cherry Harris and Joan Fairbairn.

THEY CARRIED bouquets of holly, white chrysanthemums and trailing greens with their red sheath dresses featuring floating back panels. Flat head bows of red velvet completed their ensembles.

John Hensel traveled from Summit, N. J., to be best man, and guests were seated by John Jolliffe of Canton, Ohio, James Parker of Dayton, O., William Deger of Evanston, Ill., William Johnson of Royal Oak, and John McConnell and Thomas Johnson.

Area Residents Travel Afar To Visit Families on Holiday

Many area residents traveled to other parts of the country for the holidays. Among them were the Peter Pavones and daughters, Pam and Robbie of Meadowlane drive, having spent a month's vacation out East.

While in New York they enjoyed the play, "Auntie Mame." A day spent at the ice rink at Radio City. Viewing the high Christmas tree at Rockerfeller Center was a must on their list.

Several weeks were spent at Fairfield, Conn., where they visited relatives. Their side trips included a tour around Boston, and the Santa Claus village at Handen, Conn., where Santa and his reindeers reside.

Warsaw, Va. was the destination of the Carroll Porters of Juniper Court for the holidays. Their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Packett reside there with their two sons, David and Mark.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Holtz of Burnley drive are home again after flying to Columbus, Wis., for Christmas week. They visited the Alfred Holtz family, a brother of of Mr. Holtz. Highlight of their stay was a family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Harness of East Long Lake road spent Christmas day with the J. King Harness family of Fairway drive, Detroit.

The Philip Johnsons of Charnwood and children, Pat and Susan entertained Mrs. George Muehl and her son, George of Foxcroft on Christmas day.

Sixteen guests enjoyed Christmas dinner at the home of the James Charters of Bretby drive. They arrived from Houghton Lake, Birmingham and Detroit.

On Dec. 27, the Charters left for Miami, Fla., for a three week vacation. They are making their headquarters at the New American hotel and are planning a few side trips and cruises while there.

The Alfred Macksey's of Bretby drive have their son, Alfred J. Macksey, Jr. with them during the holidays. He is in the Navy, stationed at San Diego, Calif.

The Macksey's entertained guests at the Detroit Athletic Club recently. In their party were Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Burgess of Bloomfield Hills, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Torgerson of Birmingham, Miss Fay Almas and their son, Alfred.

The Alfred Kenifeeks of Burnley drive entertained at a holiday party for 24 guests Friday evening. The group were residents of the area and old friends. A buffet supper completed a most pleasant evening.

The William Reichards of Bolingbroke entertained with a cocktail party Sunday afternoon, Dec. 23.

Their guests enjoyed the array of hors d'oeuvres and dips served by the little Reichard children, Nancy and Tom.

A cocktail party was held at the home of the Robert Wasons of Lanergan drive Sunday afternoon. Many neighbors and old friends attended.

A New Year's Eve party was hosted by the John Vivians of Burnley drive. Their 30 guests were old and new friends. A gaily decorated table held an assortment of snacks and hors d'oeuvres. The guests enpoyed the buffet supper served in the new year.

MRS. DOHERTY selected a gown of mink colored poie de soie for her daughter's wedding. The mother of the groom chose a poie-de-soie gown in a champagne hue.

After greeting the 300 guests at a reception in the church, the newlyweds departed on a wedding trip to Florida. The bride's traveling costume was a brown wool dress with matching cashmere coat, accented by a white hat.

Susan and Bob will make their home in Ann Arbor where both are studying at the University of Michigan.

Holiday Parties Highlight Village News This Week

With the New Year off to a good beginning, it is pleasant to reminisce about the holidays just past, the beauty of homes adorned in Christmas finery, and the merry gatherings at various homes throughout the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walshs' home on Glengarry was bright with holiday decorations when they entertained 22 guests at a buffet supper for neighbors in their area.

Mrs. Walsh is carrying her entertaining right into the new year with a luncheon for 18 guests within the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Smart entertained members of their family and friends at a dinner party in their home on Overhill road on Christmas Eve.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Smart Jr., the Jerry G. Smarts, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Thomson, Mrs. Virginia Snyder and Mrs. Jane Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale C. Welch Jr. of Clifton road entertained a group of neighbors at a festive cocktail party in their home on the evening of Dec. 23.

It has become an annual custom for neighbors in the vicinity of the William S. Todd home to attend the Christmas Eve get-together which the Todds hold yearly in their Drury lane home.

Aside from the gaily lit Christmas tree, candles were the only illumination, casting an aura that fairly sang out holiday good wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ludington entertained a large number of friends at an open house in their home on Overhill road. The beautifully appointed party was held Dec. 23.

Friends and acquaintances of the Ray Michaels family of Bradway boulevard will be disappointed to hear that shortly after the first of the year Mr. and Mrs. Michaels and their three children, Marilyn, Janie and Tom will be headed for a warmer climate. In the near future they will be making their home in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Recently the village jumped in population. Newcomers are Mr. and Mrs. Beeler Higbee and their five children, David 7, Susan 5, Mary 4, Barbara 2, and Jim 1.

Mr. Higbee is with the Lincoln division of Ford Motor Co. The Higbees attend St. James Episcopal church. Mrs. Higbee is second vice president of the Chi Omega sorority.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kresge and their two children, Richard, 11, and Lona, 7, have recently moved to their home on Overhill road. Mr. Kresge is affiliated with the S. S. Kresge Co.

MR. AND MRS. John Wasylik and children Raymond, left, and Janice, of Buckingham road, returned to Birmingham last week, just in time for Christmas. They had been on vacation, since Thanksgiving, at the Lago Mar hotel, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and over Christmas, they stayed with Mrs. Wasylik's parents, the Bert E. Uebeles of Orchard Ridge road, Bloomfield Hills.
