The Leonard Orrs of Sheringham, entertained Mr. Orr's family of Detroit at Christmas day dinner. The group included his brother, wife and children of Los Angeles, Calif.

New Year's eve the Orrs attended a cocktail party at the Albert Ludwig before going to the dinner at the Forest Lake country club.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Jarvis, of Wing Lake road, entertained at open house Dec. 28 for some 30 guests. They have held the same party for the past 27 years and the same guests are still comprising the group. One couple who are wintering in Florida, returned to Michigan for the holidays and attended the party.

Christmas day the Jarvises had a family dinner and Friday evening they entertained at a late buffet.

Bob Jarvis, their son, home from Michigan State University, entertained at a New Year's eve party in their home. Joining him were his sisters Jean and Sue and their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ludwig of Sheringham held a cocktail party New Year's eve prior to the dinner at Forest Lake country club. Majority of the guests were from Grosse Pointe, Wing Lake couples were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Orr and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Townsend.

Skip Remington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Remington will attend a merit trip with 25 scouts from Holy Name troop B-12 at Metamora, Jan. 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shaw, Sheringham have been attending a number of holiday parties and having small groups in for informal holiday greeting exchange.

They enjoyed Christmas dinner at Rotunda Inn with their daughter, Mrs. W. T. M. Aaley, Mrs. George Robert Dressed and daughter Diane of Warren, Mich.

Christmas morning they entertained the Fred Halls for breakfast. New Year's eve they journeyed to Toledo with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morrow of Bloomfield Village to attend a party with friends, the Carl Granthams.

There were 10 guests around the festive board Christmas day at the Paul Albertson home on Wing Lake road, including Mrs. Albertson's family from Detroit.

Their daughter Paula who last year attended Chalmers College in Missouri is living at home this year and has been working at Benumont hospital in January she will enter nurses training at St. Joseph.

Linda, Albertson's younger daughter is in the ninth grade and

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nyquist entertained friends and neighbors in their home on Old Mill road Friday evening. Food, sunbats and snowflakes around huge white pine cones decorated the wall of the entrance way.

A large star, made by Mrs. Nyquist, hung from one corner of the mirror behind the buffet table. The mirror was made of small white Christmas trees centered with gold and turquoise ornaments which overflowed into the star points.

Thirty guests attended the open house.

A luncheon was given by Mrs. Charles Phelps in her home on Old Mill road last Thursday afternoon to introduce neighbors to Mrs. Robert Sutter who moved into Berkshires last fall.

Attending the luncheon were Mrs. Robert Henderson, Mrs. Wallace Stanley, Mrs. Gordon Nyquist, Mrs. W. T. M. Aaley, Mrs. George Robert Dressed and daughter Diane of Warren, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hobart of Parkhurst Lane gave an open house Sunday. Their home was beautifully decorated for the

A CAPE COD IS YOUR BEST BET

Here is a sparkling little house that will spark up any "after-the-holidays let-down."

Located in the center of town activities, yet possessing the quiet peacefulness of the country, it solves any "location" problem for schools, shopping, etc.

You "Green Thumbs" would never dare dream of finding a property so perfectly planned and landscaped, and the wealth of unusual shrubs and flowers will utterly amaze you.

Inside we find a gracious "white" living room and dining ell with huge picture window framed by rose bushes, overlooking the patio.

The kitchen offers breakfast space and an unusual hand wrought copper hood over the stove.

The library is paneled and can become a third bedroom if needed.

Upstairs two master-sized bedrooms and unusually large bath complete the plan. Tiled b'amt of course.

It is Customized in every detail and offers exceptional location, modest price and unusual charm both inside and out. This home is a "must see" for all in 1957!
