Area College Students Home; Return to Classes This Week

The increased number of cars fitting back and forth to Birmingham last week can be attributed to the college crowd who were home, ostensibly, for the holidays, but spent much of the time visiting former schoolmates, attending parties and refurbishing wardrobes.

Michigan State university students came home Dec. 11 when their first term ended, and have been enjoying their long vacation.

Jim Voorheis, son of the Stanley J. Voorheis of West Maple, joined his parents at a family dinner in Ypsilanti on the 23rd, and on Christmas at home, when they entertained Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Miles of Walled Lake. Friday he drove to Lansing to serve as usher in the wedding of two classmates.

Pat Nyberg, daughter of the Axel Nyberg of Eastman road, was another Michigan State student home. Pat is a resident of Abbott Hall there, where she is in her freshman year.

Johann, daughter of the Val Corradis of South Clunbury road, also a freshman and a resident of Snyder Hall at the same school, was home, as was Tim Sellner, freshman, son of the Donald G. Sellners of Inkster road. Their classes started again after the New Year.

Miss studies, and his look of satisfaction comes from the huge success of the recent Holiday Carnival which he helped to engineer. He is a son of the E. S. Maunda of Darramoor road.

From Albion college came Sheila Menoch, a freshman, daughter of the Roderick Menochs of Wycliffe road, and Stewart Schultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Schultz of Walnut Lake road. Stu is in his sophomore year there.

Everyone is feeling badly for Beverly Noch, student from Central Michigan colleges, who is hospitalized as a result of an accident which happened as she was delivering Christmas gifts. Bev was thrown from the car, and is at the Old Grace hospital, but is improving nicely.

Holly Morton celebrated her sixth birthday on Christmas Eve with a party to which close kindergarten friends were invited. Having fun and sharing the ice cream and cake with her were Sherrill Mulholland, Carrie Whims, Lisa Fincha, Suki Potteliger and Debby Jarge.

Holly is one of the three girls in the Frank Morton family on Middlebelt road. The entire family gathered to celebrate her birthday on Christmas Day. On the Sunday before Christmas, the Mortons held an open house for neighbors, and entertained with a holiday party Friday.

Riverwoods Garden Club Meets Jan. 8

Members of the Riverwoods branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association will meet at the home of Mrs. Herbert Davklett, 25412 Larkins road, on Jan. 8 at 12:30 p.m.

Jonathan Ball of Birmingham, will give a talk on general garden planning. Cohostesses will be Mrs. T. Neil McGregor and Mrs. Leon Decheim.

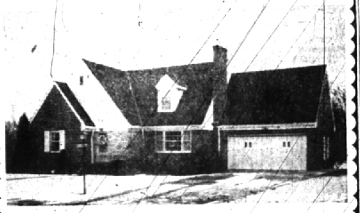

Among the pleasures of being with his grandparents, Jim was hoping to get in a lot of winter sports. The rest of the family drove to Toledo Sunday for a visit with relatives there. On New Year's Eve Mr. and Mrs. Alain attended a bon voyage party in honor of a cousin who is leaving for Germany.

Among the open houses in the area was that given by the Ben Badenochs of South Clunbury road, guests were especially impressed with the paintings by their hostess which were such an important part of the living room decor.

Among other parties were those at the James Reynolds and the Dr. Bertram Campbell on West Dartmoor road, the William Brundage on East Dartmoor, the Paul Dabbs on Putnam and the William Carrolls, the Carl Louisons, and the Thomas Ferrills on South Clunbury road. The Dale Brubakers entertained at a New Year's Eve gathering.

The Reginald Rice family drove to Princeton, Ky. for Christmas with their families, stopping at Purdue University to pick up son Bill and take him along. He accompanied them home afterward to stay until the new term begins next week.

The Richard Teagues of West Maple road were among the couples in New York for the auto show returning home in time for final Christmas preparations. They have been busy the past week with holiday entertainment.

Newcomers Mr. and Mrs. John S. Pangborn moved from Redford township to their home on Bromfield Lane in October. They have three children, Mary Deborah, 5, who started kindergarten at Walnut Lake school; John Thomas, 3, and David Blake, 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Pangborn are both Michigan State university alumni, where she was affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta, and he with Phi Tau. Pangborn is associated with the Standard Oil company, and is active in New York for the auto show. They both enjoy gardening and reading as hobbies. Celebrating Christmas in their new home, they entertained Mrs. Pangborn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Haghe of Columbia, S. C., and other members of the family who live in the surrounding area. New Year's found them holding open house for close friends.
