Mrs. Ben Robertson of Forest lane, pack mother of B-24, had a merrier Christmas this year as a result of the enthusiasm of the Pack's 66 scouts for their Christmas project.

Each boy had a chance to share in making a needy family in northern Michigan happy.

For months before the holidays, each den collected clothing, food and toys. John Tomes and his son, accompanied by a friend, took the gifts to the family in a station wagon and trailer.

Mrs. Robertson would like the Cubs and their parents to know of the cheer and happiness that they brought into this home as a result of their contributions.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Hartmann of Eastlady road held open house Saturday evening for friends and neighbors. A gayly set cocktail buffet greeted the host of friends who dropped in to wish the Hartmanns a happy new year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gordon Walker of Westlady road entertained at dinner Mrs. B. C. Foster and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cox and son Jonathan. New Year's Eve will find the family gathered together to welcome in the new year.

Saturday evening friends gathered at the home of the Bert Gattwards of Bellvue trail for cocktails and buffet supper. Mrs. Gattward's buffet table was set with an herbloom lace cloth with large red tapers.

Guests were seated at card tables and their associates.

Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jackson of Sylvan lane played host and hostess to Mrs. Jackson's nephew, Dr. Richard Roberts and his fiancée, Judy Peterman of London, Ontario, during the past week. The Jacksons held a Sunday evening open house for friends from London, Ontario and Birmingham.

Twenty-two friends and neighbors were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Melone of Sylvan lane at a Christmas party on the Saturday preceding Christmas day.

A Christmas day open house was held by the R. P. Ganchans at their home on Norchester. Neighbors, Birmingham friends, as well as Detroit friends, attended.

Welcoming the new year at the home of the V. H. Lamb on Norchester were friends who had stopped for greetings, some of whom moved on to other parties, while some remained to see in the New Year with the Lamb.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lucas and son, Robert, spent Christmas weekend in Akron, Ohio, visiting in the home of Mrs. Lucas' parents.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dorough, Don Dorough, a student at Dartmouth college, divided his vacation between his home and Albuquerque, N. Mex.
