MRS. DONALD G. ADAM Marriage Solemnized In New Haven, Conn.

Chapel of St. Thomas' Episcopal church, New Haven, Conn., was the scene of the marriage Saturday afternoon of Nancy Jackson Tuttle to Donald G. Adam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm G. Adam of 1255 Villa, Birmingham.

Daughter of Mrs. Rowson Tuttle of New Haven and the late Mr. Tuttle, the bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Arthur Parswell Tuttle.

HER BRIDAL gown of ivory tulle was designed on princess lines with square neckline and bag fullness extending to form a bustle train.

Hairloom rose-pointe lace edged her tulle veil and Eucharist lines composed her bouquet.

AS HER sister, honor maid, Isabelle Hollister Tuttle was given in marriage by her uncle, Arthur Parswell Tuttle.

and carried deep pink camellias. A canary yellow velvet frock was worn by Felicity Tuttle, who was flower girl for her cousin, Yellow roses and begonias were combined for her bouquet.

RICHARD Mather Adam was his brother's best man and guests were seated by Richard K. Hamlen and Earle M. Edgerston, classmates of the groom at Harvard university.

After Feb. 1, the newlyweds will be at home at 379 Harvard, Cambridge, Mass.

North Adams Elizabeth Yates MI G-1682 Thornwood Residents Busy With Neighborhood Parties

Thornwood subdivision is a bee hive of activity these days with teen age parties, showers and newcomers moving into the area.

A slumber party was hosted recently by Jeanie Smith, daughter of the Don Smiths of Oakhill road. The party began in the afternoon with hohologging to work up seven hearty appetites.

Supper was served the group with the help of Mrs. Smith. Joining in the fun were Sally McLaughlin, Sue Kreis, Nancy Green, Kathy Wollenberg, Nancy Madison, all of Birmingham, and Katie Collins of Grosse Pointe.

During the evening three more guests arrived during a record session. There was Sue Sampson, Pam Jones and Nancy Setzer. The highlight of the party was a birthday cake in the form of pizza pie with candies honoring Nancy Madison's 14th birthday.

The Smiths' son, David, a University of Michigan medical student spent last weekend skiing at Boyne Mountain in upper Michigan with five of his buddies.

Son Ross, a student of the school of design at University of Michigan, is planning to visit friends in Grand Rapids this weekend.

Mrs. Clifford Mezey of Oakhill was honor guest at a baby shower luncheon today by co-hostesses Mrs. James Everett and Mrs. Don Smith of Oakhill drive. The luncheon for 14 Thornwood residents was held at the Smith home. Other showers were also given Mrs. Mezey in the past couple of weeks.

Shower Honors Lynne Finke

Among new Thornwood residents are Mrs. W. C. Rohmsoer and son, Don, of Oakhill drive. Their move was from Bloomfield Hills. Don attends Bloomfield high and gives top priority on his sports list to swimming and hunting.

The James Gray and son, Gregory, are getting settled in their new home on Upton drive, formerly of Southfield. Mr. Gray is affiliated with Jam Handy, Detroit, and is a golf enthusiast. Mrs. Gray is interested in sewing and knitting.

Son, Greg, is celebrating his fourth birthday on Feb. 2. Eight little pals will be present to share in the fun and to see cartoon movies that dad will provide.

Other newcomers to Upton drive are the Alfonso Buseaus, formerly of Huntington Woods. Mr. Buseau is district manager for Hart Manufacturers, Hartford, Conn. The Buseaus have just returned after spending a month in California visiting their two sons and their families. Alfonso, Jr. resides in Van Nuys, and James resides in Hollywood.

Five Hill has two new residents in its subdivision. The George Carney family has located on Pine Hill drive and are from Oak Park. Their three children are Jill, 8, Beth Ann, 6, attending Pembroke school and Patty, 2. Mr. Carney is with the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, Royal Oak.

The Harry Haulmans and son, Steven, moved into their home on Walnut Hill drive in December. Their move was from Saginaw, Mich. Mr. Haulman is a vice president with the Michigan Bank, Detroit.

Newcomers to Eastover Farms are the Michael Kollins of Highland road. Mr. Kollins is supervisor of technical training at Chrysler Corp., Detroit, and is in the naval reserve. Their children are Michael, 5, who started his first day of school at Eastover last Monday, and Richard, 2. The family are members of St. Huzo in the Hills.

Mrs. Kins Collins of 5335 Brookside, former president of the YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit will be the moderator for a "What's our line" presentation on the "Y's" annual report, at their annual dinner, Jan. 30. The dinner will be held at the Northern Y.M.C.A., Highland Park.

Hostess for the Lynne Finke shower was Mrs. J. F. Keane of 5844 Eastman, Walnut Lake.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Finke of Inkerster road, Bloomfield township. She and her fiancé, Kenneth Mahle, son of the Walter Mahles of Humphrey street, Birmingham, plan a Feb. 16 wedding at St. James Episcopal church, Birmingham.

MRS. KEANE used large green and pink hearts and candles and a miniature bridal procession to decorate the serving table of the party. Guests included Mrs. Donald Sellner, Mrs. Otis Zahn, Mrs. Stewart Schultz, Mrs. Harley Elwood, Mrs. Edward Page, Mrs. Joseph Anderson and Mrs. Howard Whims.

Also attending were the Misses Pat McClennan, Karen Weaver, and Carolyn Killing.
