

3-B Beaumont Hospital Women's Group To Meet Feb. 11

The quarterly meeting of the women's committee of William Beaumont hospital will be February 11 at 2:30 p.m., in the hospital cafeteria.

Mrs. Frank R. Chapman and her co-chairman, Mrs. L. E. Hoppe, have asked the various working chairmen of the organization to talk on the activities of their committees.

On the program are Mrs. Palmer Sutton, who will explain the functions of visitor information project, and Mrs. LeRoy Gilger, who will demonstrate the uses of the library cart, and the approach to patients desiring books.

Mrs. H. S. Christie will talk on the duties of the admitting committee, and Mrs. George W. Akers and Mrs. Vincent Russell will follow with the nurses' aid and pediatric program. Mrs. E. A. Laird will show samples of work that has been done in central supply and sewing.

Mrs. Eugene Land is to be hostess for the dessert preceding the program.

Will-O-Way Hosts Exchange Teachers

Will-O-Way Apprentice Theatre was the center of activity last weekend when Celia and Ken Turner hosted 17 school teachers from Detroit, Germany, England and Hawaii.

The group was extremely interested in the theatre facilities which differ greatly from those in other countries. Following a buffet supper, they stayed for the final performance given by the Will-O-Way students.

Area teachers who attended were Miss Mabel Giszczak, president of the Detroit Education Association; Mr. & Mrs. Ray Mrocz, president-elect of D.E.A.; Miss Hilja Humphries, Law School; Miss Bernice Frederick, Newton School; Miss Mary Sadowy, Redford.

The exchange teachers were Mr. and Mrs. Karl Schwincke, Germany; Misses June Bell, Marjorie Hirosh, Kathleen, Holmes, England; Miss Irene Murakami and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Young, Hawaii.

The sky above us is the cub study topic for January. The cubs prior to the pack meeting visited the Cranbrook planetarium with their den mothers where they were entranced by the huge artificial sky and the excellent lecture on the locations of various stars and constellations.

At the pack meeting, den 8 presented a brief program in which each cub represented one of the nine planets in our solar system.

Troyton Manor Extension Studies Community Projects

Troyton Manor Extension club met for its January meeting at the home of Mrs. Allen Diebold. Mrs. Seeburger called the meeting to order and Mrs. Franklin Bens made an announcement of a tour of the Pontiac State Hospital, with a view to making the children's section a project for community aid.

Also mentioned as a project was Birmingham's League for Handicapped Children. The secretary was asked to send for more program books. Co-hostess for this meeting was Mrs. Simpson.

Subject of the lesson was legal phases of home management, descent and distribution of property, and wills. It was presented by Mrs. Anson Hedgecock and Mrs. Franklin Bens and Mrs. Allen Diebold.

A short skit was presented dealing with the legal problems of selling a farm and other real property to several children.

Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Teague, 733 North Eton, Graefield Terraces spent a pleasant two weeks recently when they had as their houseguest Mrs. M. B. Stewart of Jackson Heights, Long Island, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hopper of 1951 Graefield and their five month old son David spent a week as houseguests of Mr. Hopper's sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Cowley and son Douglas of Toledo, Ohio. Their sojourn was highlighted by a gala birthday celebration honoring Mrs. Cowley.

Members of the Graefield Home-making extension unit are curiously looking at their accessories and wondering what to change after their meeting Jan. 21 which was based on Accessories in the home.

Speakers Mrs. Betty Moad and Mrs. H. F. Norman demonstrated how to use accessories to make their homes more attractive. One of the local Birmingham merchants graciously loaned the organization many items for display and these were discussed for shape, size, color and usefulness.

It was pointed out that accessories should be useful as well as decorative. Accessories make the home and reflect one's personality.

Dessert and coffee was served by co-hostesses Mrs. Donn Skoog and Mrs. John P. Leavitt, at the home of Mrs. Richard Pippin of 620 Ridgeway.

Mrs. Thomas Schulte was hostess.

Former Troyton Manor residents Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rose now of Birchcrest road, Detroit, recently entertained some of their former neighbors in their new home.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ross, Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan.

After an evening of charades, the guests were seated at a candle lighted table for a midnight supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ross of Witherbee road, Troyton Manor, entertained friends Saturday for an evening of charades. Later in the evening Mrs. Ross served chicken-in-the-basket to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Girard, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Girard and Kathleen Feely and John Moore.

Another area bridge group was entertained by Mrs. Robert Distler of Brooklawn road, Troyton Manor, seated at the two tables were Mrs. Granville Barker, Mrs. Frank Clark, Mrs. Robert Friesner, Mrs. Thomas Schulte and Mrs. James Adams.

Dessert and coffee concluded the evening.

B-23 CUB SCOUTS

Cub scout pack B-23 is giving out an assist this week with its big candy sale. Heart-shaped boxes of chocolates for Valentine's day are now available through any cub scout in the pack.

Cubs are taking orders now and den dais will make deliveries next week. Proceeds from the sale will be used to defray operating costs of the pack.

At the pack meeting last week, cubmaster Glenn Watson presented a wolf badge to John Nelson; wolf silver arrows to Jeff Meyer, Steven Fisher and Douglas Fehant; bear badge and gold arrow to David Hawsey and bear silver arrow to
