Marriage Plans Told At Buffet for Faculty

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Vera Grim of Birmingham and Richard Hutchinson of Lansing is being announced by Mrs. E. F. Grim of Crestline, Ohio, mother of the bride-to-be. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hutchinson of Hart, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gandon of 14350 Woodmont, Detroit, gave a buffet supper for the members of the Bloomfield Hills high school faculty and their wives last Saturday evening to announce the event.

Miss Grim, who holds a BA degree from Baldwin-Wallace college, Berea, Ohio, and an MA degree from Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, is an English and Latin teacher in the Bloomfield Hills school.

Mr. Hutchinson is the diversified occupations coordinator for the Lansing schools and has his BA degree in Business Administration from Michigan State University and his degree in Business Education from Eastern Michigan college. He is currently working on his Master's degree at Michigan State university. His fraternity is Kappa Sigma.

The wedding will be an event of mid-summer in the First Methodist church of Crestline, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Terry Return From Visit to Hawaiian Islands

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Terry of Waddington road have just returned from their first trip to the Hawaiian Islands, and found them to be just as wonderful as they had anticipated.

The Terrys flew to the west coast where they spent a few days in picturesque San Francisco, staying at the Mark Hopkins hotel. Booking another plane they flew to Honolulu where they spent ten days.

While there they were entertained in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Kong. The Terrys will be remembered as being in-laws of Charlie who stay on the Detroit Lions team. Among the guests at the dinner in the Terry's honor was Mayor Blaisdell and Mrs. Blaisdell of Honolulu.

Mrs. Joseph Paulus of Glenary Circle West, recently entertained the 21 members of the Christ Child bowling league, at a dessert in her home after one of the weekly get-togethers.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Muncy recently returned to their Bradway boulevard home after spending some few weeks at their home in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Reason for their return was to greet their son Bill, who now makes his home in Seattle, and who had come east to accept the President's Cup which he had won for his outstanding speed boat racing and as a result was nominated to the Hall of Fame.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Baldwin of Hupp Cross road have returned from a visit to the south where they spent some time visiting Mrs. Baldwin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lee of Palm Beach, Fla.

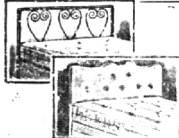

Another couple enjoying the sun, shine and surf of Fort Lauderdale these days are Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Williams of Burning Bush. The Williams are staying at the Jolly Roger during their Florida sojourn. Mr. and Mrs. Arno McGraw of Bucyrus, Ohio will stay with the Williams children while their parents are gone, and the children are delighted to have their grandparents with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Woolson of Glenary road left last week for a quick flight to San Francisco where they will be staying at the Fairmount hotel while attending the National American Dealers association convention being held in that city.

After some 15 years residence in Bloomfield Village, the M. H. Fogley family are moving from their Hupp Cross road home to make their permanent home in Boca Laton, Fla. Buzz Fogley, a junior at Birmingham high will continue his studies at Seacrest high school in Delray, Fla.
