

Mrs. R. S. Tolles Visits Washington For Inauguration

Mrs. Robert Tolles of 633 Chesterfield road, Birmingham, spent an inaugural weekend in Washington visiting with her sister and brother-in-law the Honorable and Mrs. Al Ullman. Mr. Ullman is the newly elected democratic Congressman from Oregon's second district. Mrs. Tolles' three days in our nation's capital were made memorable by her participation in inaugural festivities. Together with Mrs. Ullman, niece Anita Jo and nephew Kenneth she witnessed the swearing-in of the President, his inaugural speech and the colorful, two-mile-long inaugural parade.

At the personal invitation of Richard Bales, music director and conductor for the National Gallery of Art, the Ullmans and their guest attended the inaugural concert on Sunday evening in the gallery's east garden court.

Highlighting the weekend was Mrs. Tolles' attendance at the reception of governors on Sunday afternoon at Washington's Statler hotel. There she had the pleasure of personally meeting Governor and Mrs. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan and Governor and Mrs. Robert Hines of Oregon.

Before concluding her stay in Washington, she visited the White House and other points of interest.

MRS. E. J. BARNEY (left) checks with four state finalists in the Mrs. American contest before they made a surprise appearance before members of North Woodward alumnae association of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Seated (from left) are Mrs. Michigan, Mrs. R. Wayne Dregor; Mrs. Lawrence Rouse, representing Illinois; Mrs. Robert Oatis of Indiana, and Mrs. Lou Morris who is Mrs. Colorado. The Kappas met for luncheon last week in Mrs. Barney's home at 977 Brookwood. Robert C. O'Hara of Southfield township, representing the DeSoto division of Chrysler Corp., one of the sponsors of the national contest, was on hand to show a film and to explain how the contest is conducted.
