Wing Lake WNFG Holds Series of Bridge Parties

Bridge parties in members' homes will constitute the annual bridge for the Wing Lake branch of the WNFG during the month of February.

At the home of Edgar Lee, Saturday, Feb. 27, there will be 14 tables. She will give the party with Mrs. Lee Carter, Mrs. Fred Graupner and Mrs. Martin Fotts.

Feb. 19 Mrs. Heber Fisk and Mrs. John Doyle will hold their bridge and Feb. 20, two tables will be playing at the home of Mrs. William Springer, Mrs. Charley Robinson will be co-hostess.

Mrs. Earl Weston, together with Mrs. Ralph Darling and Mrs. Joseph Johnson and Mrs. Earl Stanford, will have seven tables Feb. 14 at the home of Mrs. Weston.

Other parties are being arranged with Mrs. Heber Fisk, party co-ordinator and Mrs. Raymond Hunter in charge of table prizes. Those wishing to arrange parties, attend or get tickets, are asked to contact Mrs. Fisk.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Dunham, of Thurber road were Dr. and Mrs. Paul Brower of Cleveland, Ohio, Saturday evening, members of Mr. Dunham's office staff were guests and a late buffet was served.

Mrs. and Mrs. Macklin G. Hannan, of Sunningdale have just returned from a trip to California, leaving the last of November, they visited Los Angeles, Los Altos and Escondido, Mexico.

In Los Altos they visited their daughter and husband, Dr. and John Weigand and in Palo Alto their son, Jerry.

A special highlight of their trip was the Rose Bowl parade. On their return, Mr. Hannan joined him a week later.

Three generations have filled the home of the Lawrence Mertz, of Oak Grove drive lately. For the past two months, Mrs. Mertz's grandmother, Mrs. Howard Mertz, has visited them. Just before her departure, they took their baby grandson, Geoffrey to care for two weeks.

Mrs. Bretton left last week to make her home with her son, R. D. Bretton of Westfield, N. J. Bud Mertz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mertz who has been with Mrs. Mertz at Pontiac Press has begun his new post at the Detroit News.

Mrs. Jack Townsend of Sheringham, will have a birthday luncheon tomorrow for Mrs. Leonard Orr. Guests will be Mrs. Richard Peters, Mrs. Harry Fairchild and Mrs. Leonard Orr. They will play bridge during the afternoon.

A neighborhood bridge club which meets monthly was held Jan. 21 at the home of Mrs. Leonard Orr. Attending the evening dessert bridge were Helen Shaw, Alice Brosscher, Shirley Werner, Jean Sarge, Mary Peters, Carroll Dunham and Marty Townsend.

Beach hats were the favors and candy-decorated cake houses were the attractive birthday cakes at the seventh birthday party of Diane Dickerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dorman Dickerson of Wing Lake road, Saturday.

Guests were Patty Smith, Abbie Hyde, Linda Barton, Susan Burtsey, Linda Beukema, Debbie Dugan, Susan Reilly and Debbie Hickson. Games and prizes provided the fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Sullivan, of Indianwood trail, entertained at pre-dance cocktails before the recent Wing Lake Farms square dance.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kelling, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard White of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wall of Drayton Plains, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coates of Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Steyskals of Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Neuhauer of Brookwood and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ghesquierre of Franklin road.

Following the dance, the entire group returned to the home of the Ghesquierres for a night cap.

A family reunion was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Siegel of Dakota circle, years in the U. S. Navy and is entering for 10 more. Officer Tardiss and his wife and two small sons came from West Virginia for the occasion. He will be stationed in Chicago for the next three years.

Besides the Tardiss family, out-of-town houseguests for the weekend were Mrs. Siegel's mother, Mrs. Josephine Tardiss of Rochester, N. Y., and her two sisters, Mrs. Patricia Madol also of Rochester and Mrs. William Clark of Cleveland, Ohio.

Throughout the visit, friends dropped in, including Mrs. Siegel's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Tardiss of Birmingham. Among officer Tardiss' many interesting and hazardous experiences in the navy are his 42 months as a prisoner of the Japanese and his participation in the Bataan march in World War II.

They went sight-seeing, attended two plays, "Little Abner" and "My Fair Lady" and visited celebrity gatherings locally, before flying on to Washington.

At the Colony club in New York, they watched the arrival of Ingrid Bergman and her party. At the Waldorf Astoria, where they went to hear Lena Horne sing, Joan Crawford, just returned from England, posed in matching black-satin dress and coat elegantly, sat at a table next to the Margrove party.

Edward G. Robinson and Peter Lorre were among the other prominent of whom the Margroves caught a glimpse, and while leaving the Waldorf, they spotted Joe DiMaggio, busily signing autographs at the door.

Flying on to Washington, the Margroves had front row seats opposite the Presidential viewing stand for the parade. They report the President looked in ruddy good health.

Residents are again reminded by area police captain, Mrs. Leland W. Rosemont, that porch lights should be on between seven and eight o'clock to aid 40 mothers in their "Mothers' March".

Eighty-five couples attended the dance sponsored by the Hostess club on Friday evening at the Birmingham country club. A number of couples made up dinner parties at the club preceding the event and other groups enjoyed cocktail parties prior to the evening of dancing.

Ralph Johnson and Carol Starlet gave an exhibition during one intermission, displaying proficiency in the execution of the fox trot, waltz, swing, samba and the mambo, and were well received by those attending.

Jack Lamb, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Lamb of Norchester, celebrated his fourth birthday on Jan. 23, and invited Gary Burke, Eddie Brehm, Corlie Price and Mike Peppertrell for lunch.

Jack's sister, Linda, helped with plans for the party. The guests were delighted with the cowboy birthday cake which, according to Mrs. Lamb, set the pace for the afternoon of fun.

Mrs. and Mrs. Thomas S. Hough formerly of Detroit moved to Riverside drive in the fall. While Mr. Hough is now retired from his post of vice president, he still is on the board of directors of Douglas & Lomason, Co., Detroit, manufacturers of a automobile parts, having been connected with the company the past 40 years.

Beverly PTA has scheduled a card party at the school Feb. 15 at 8:00 p.m. The "Belles and Beaux" party, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Harry Grandner's ways and means committee, will provide for bridge, gin rummy, pinochle or any other card game, with prizes provided for all.

Tickets for the party, the only fund raising activity of the year, are available through room mothers. Parents are urged to support the project, to help with the many PTA expenses, which include support of boy and girl scouts, books and playground equipment, and this last Christmas, presentation of a Christmas tree to every class room.

Working with Mrs. Grandner on the party are Mrs. Robert Vibbert, games; Mrs. John E. Jones, hospitality; Mrs. Claude Whipple, publicity; Mrs. Warren A. Risk, food; Mrs. Theo. E. Olson, tickets; Mrs. Lawrence Muma, supplies; Mrs. Thomas E. Jensen, prizes; and parking, Richard Hatch.

At the PTA meeting at Beverly school last week parents heard Dr. Merland A. Kopka of Wayne University speak on the subject, "See Johnny Through." Dr. Kopka, a noted speaker in the child guidance field, addressed a large and attentive audience of parents, who attended despite the icy weather.

A new Webster's dictionary was organized at the home of Dr. Harold Fairbanks on Riverside Monday evening.

Mrs. Glenn Freeman's cub scout den 7 enjoyed a movie party Saturday.
