B'ham Assists Tornado-Struck Huntington Woods

The severe Fourth of July storm left the city unscathed, but Birmingham answered a request from Huntington Woods last week to help clear the more than 1000 damaged or downed trees in the tornado-struck area.

The city sent two dump trucks, a chipper, and four other pieces of equipment, accompanied by a man from the department of public works and 11 men from the forestry and parks departments, including Parks and Forestry Superintendent Charles Gale.

City Manager Harold K. Schone told city commissioners Monday night that "while no discussion has been had up to this point as to charges for this assistance, satisfactory arrangements will be made for reimbursement to the city."

Three Injured In Collisions

Two traffic accidents early Monday caused injuries to three people.

After a collision at Adams and Lincoln, the drivers of both vehicles were treated at William Beaumont hospital for minor injuries and released. They were Peter A. Quatrocochi, 22, of Dearborn, who suffered a fractured nose, and Carl Dreft, 41, of Berkley.

Mrs. Vina Caron, 55, of Escanaba, was treated by a private physician for minor injury after the car in which she was riding collided with a car driven by Bruce E. Aumann, 40, of 18784 Wiltshire, Lathrup Village. The accident occurred at Chapin and Woodward.

Habeas Corpus literally means, "you may have the body."

The Statue of Liberty was erected in 1886.

10 Delegates Enjoy Week at Boys' State

The ten Birmingham boys who attended Wolverine Boys' State, on the Michigan State university campus at East Lansing, are back home after a week of fun and education. Together with boys from all over Michigan, they elected their own city, county, and state officers and set the various governments in operation.

The boys who attended from Birmingham and the offices they held were Don Andrese, city council member; Bob Benson, state representative; Jim Trusell, county prosecuting attorney; Dick Ward, county probate judge; Howard Willett, assistant prosecuting attorney; Ron Morrow, county coroner; Bob Guyer, convention representative; Ortho Corsaut, county prosecuting attorney; Warren Kisk, justice of the peace; and Howard Flint, county probate judge.

Each night they attended assemblies and listened to speakers including Gov. G. Mennen Williams and the Rev. Robert D. Richards.

There also were demonstrations on radio waves and the use of firearms. A mock trial was presented by Lansing judges and lawyers.

TIME WAS SET aside for sports and other activities. On Sunday several mock weddings were staged with visiting girlfriends.

Sponsoring the Birmingham boys were the Kiwanis club, Rotary club, Charles Edwards post of the American Legion, Hi-12 club, Exchange club, and the Junior Chamber of Commerce. The entire program was conducted by the American Legion.

Damage

wide, 10-foot deep hole did not keep traffic from using the bridge.

NO LIGHTNING FIRES were reported in Birmingham, but DPW Superintendent Tom Brien said about 50 complaints of flooded basements, several of them along Pine street, were received. Downed wires and trees and flooded streets were reported to Birmingham police.

Police routed traffic around the flooded viaduct at Eton and Maple roads and a second impassable point on Eton between Bowers and Villa. The flooded viaduct bottlenecked Maple traffic back to Hunter boulevard, but did not close off access to the commuter station.

Grand Trunk Ticket Agent H. J. Wichman said many regular commuters were unable to reach the station, but many "irregular" customers boarded the Detroit-bound trains; which were not slowed up by flood waters.

COMMUTERS WHO TOOK Greyhound buses to Detroit were delayed an hour after buses had to be detoured around the flooded Highland Park viaduct, according to Raymond Henry, local dispatcher.

Firemen reported wires down in every corner of Southfield township, from Magnolia in the south to Beverly Hills in the north. Eleven Mile road was blocked off west of Telegraph.

Southfield police detoured traffic for three hours early Monday at Northwestern and Telegraph roads after a 4800 volt wire was felled by the storm, according to Police Chief Philip LaVigne.

LEONARD LAMB, Southfield water superintendent, said residents in the southern part of the township complained of flooding in areas where pumps were used to lift water from low to high ditches.

The township's street flooding was most serious, said Lamb, who blamed overgrown ditches for retarded water flow. He said about 25 flooded basement complaints were received.

Many Bloomfield township residents reported flooded basements, and others couldn't get to report flooding as the telephones were out of order.

In Lathrup, City Administrator Leonard A. Watchowski said traffic was re-routed around the impassable Sunny-brook-Rainbow area.

ONLY ONE FLOODED basement was reported, said Watchowski, who praised the city's recent downspout disconnection ordinance, and an even more recent cleanout of about one-third of the city's sewer system, for the lack of flooding.

Both Watchowski and Lamb said standing water was the result of a restricted catch basin policy which allows only a limited flow into the sewers. They credited this limited flow with a decrease in flooding of homes.

Watchowski said no property damage had been reported in Lathrup, while Southfield had minor damage, especially to trees.

Church Alterations Swell Valuations

Money spent on building and alterations last month was nearly double that spent in the same month last year, according to Birmingham Building Inspector Andrew F. Butt.

Five permits were issued for new single family residences. Alterations on the First Methodist church on West Maple road accounted for $344,000 of the $500,860 total valuation.

Warren A. Wood Named Chairman Of UF Committee

Warren A. Wood, 3989 Orchard Hill, Bloomfield township, president of the Detroit Stock exchange, today was named chairman of United Foundation fund-raising activities among government offices and groups in the Birmingham-Bloomfield-Franklin area.

William T. LaRue, general chairman of the UF drive in this area, announcing the appointment, said Wood and his group would be responsible for contacting personnel in all local, state and federal offices in the region.

The ninth annual "Give Once For All" Torch Drive gets underway Oct. 15.

WOOD

WOOD IS assistant vice president of Baker, Simonds and Company and for the past two years has served as president of the Detroit, Stock Exchange. Previously he was associated with Alison and Co.

Phantom

The Koukoulis were among the few who heard or read about the phantom who did not completely doubt his existence. They were skeptical, they admitted, but decided to spend a few nights lying in the bushes.

THEY considered it amazingly good luck that they should catch him the first night. George gave Alphonse time to take a couple of turns in the lake, realized he was close enough to tackle, and dove in—shoes and all.

The brothers, who are just 20 and 21 years old, first thought they saw the gaitor about 11 p.m. When he reappeared about 4 a.m., they were ready.

HE'S A BIT thin, but they intend to give him good care and to feature him in the reptile garden. The Singletons agreed that they should keep Alphonse, but Mrs. Singleton made them promise "to be good to Alphonse."

They estimated him to be six or seven years old. It's anybody's guess as to how long he has been there, but the brothers felt his thinness indicates he's had a long hibernation during winters in the frozen lake.

It was Mrs. Singleton who brought out the steel tape to measure Alphonse's tip-to-tail length. She maintains this was necessary to settle once and for all those rumors that had the alligator as long as seven feet. She herself first estimated it two years ago at five feet.

THIS CAUSED her to ask the Koukoulises if Alphonse might still have a friend in the lake.

"His mouth and head look shorter than I remembered," she remarked as Alphonse—if this is the original Alphonse—was being tied. At this point no one wanted to say for sure that there couldn't be a mate still free. Mrs. Singleton admits it's highly unlikely, but then it was unlikely that any alligator would be making his home in Long Lake.

Mrs. Singleton minimized any real danger to having had the reptile in the lake and seemed to have developed a genuine fondness for Alphonse.

As Alphonse was having his mouth tied, it was definite that he was displeased with leaving.
