Vacation's Here as Kids
Head for Camps and Trips

A burst similar to a Fourth of July Roman candle dispersed the area's school children on their various ways towards their summer vacations.

Miss Barbara Chapman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Chapman of 1756 Graefield road boarded a train last week headed for Camp Ak-O-Mah located in Chicout, Ont. Barbara is a student at Derby junior high and plans to spend most of the summer at camp. While there, she hopes to specialize in water sports that the camp is noted for.

Five youngsters from the Troyton Manor area have just completed two weeks at the girl scout day camp, Camp Indianwood, on Lake Orion. Members of Brownie troop No. 829, the girls enjoyed the activities planned for them by their leaders.

Included in the group were Wendy Mahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mahan; Mary Lippard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lippard; Sherri Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Smith; Susan Baines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Baines, and Susan Cramer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cramer.

Mary Gologly flew to Oklahoma City, Okla., for part of her summer vacation from Derby junior high school. She is the houseguest of her aunt, Mrs. Creal Blake.

Mary is the daughter of the Hugh Gologly of Witherbee road. Off for a month in Las Vegas, Nev., is Wealtha Ann Hedgecock, daughter of the Anson Hedgecocks of Witherbee road. She is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hedgecock, and an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hartman.

Miss Hedgecock has just completed her junior year at Central Michigan college.

Three Derby road children are spending some of the summer taking art class at the Bloomfield Hills Art association. In this group are Jack Kneone, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kneone; Margaret road decided on a new venture for July's affair at the Barker's home. Duplicate bridge was played and enjoyed by the group.

Seated at the two tables relishing the refreshing dessert were Mrs. Thomson Schulte, Mrs. Howard Ross, Mrs. William Mara, Jr., Mrs. Robert Dittler, Mrs. Martin Swift, Mrs. James Adams and Mrs. Walter Jones.

The women also were happy to meet Mrs. Barker's mother-in-law Mrs. Robert B. Baker, from Mansfield, Ohio, who is visiting a few days to see her grandson, Robbie.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Anderson of Brooklawn road had as their houseguest for the past two weeks Mrs. Anderson's mother, Mrs. Leo Soopko, of Ironwood, Mich. Mrs. Soopko flew here to spend some time with her grandchildren, Mary Lee, 5 years old, and Kathy, 2 years old.

While here, she also enjoyed shopping and visiting with more of her relatives in surrounding suburbs.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Simpson and children Susan and Sharon of 1888 Derby road just returned from a delightful week at the Pine Shores cottage on Grand Traverse bay off Long Lake.

Accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William Grimshaw and children Karen and Tommy, the group enjoyed relaxing in the sun and occasional dips in the lake. The men proudly boast very good catches of northern pike.

Highlight of the vacation for the children was a trip to a nearby zoo which contained all the animals native to Michigan. They also had a chance to view the nearly completed and much talked of Mackinac bridge.

A delicious banana jewel pie was the highlight of the evening for the bridge club of Mrs. Thomas Schulte of 1574 Witherbee road, Troyton Manor.

Those delighting in the refreshing pie and cool atmosphere of Mrs. Schulte's recreation room were Mrs. Robert Burch, Mrs. William Kenyon, Mrs. Ricard Haggarthy, and Mrs. James Brockway.

Just returned from a business trip and Veterans of Foreign Wars Convention are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Guilliani of 1942 Witherbee road.

While Guilliani sat in on the various meetings, Mrs. Guilliani enjoyed shopping in Grand Rapids. Both enjoyed witnessing such spectacles as the VFW pageant of drums, drill teams and various events sponsored by the various local schools. Highlight of the con-

Mrs. H. Henderson
Elected to Head
Republican Women

Republican Women's Federation of Oakland County biennial election was July 8 at the Waldron hotel in Pontiac.

Officers elected were Mrs. Hardy Henderson of Franklin, president; first vice president, Mrs. Ralph Cook of Royal Oak; second vice president, Mrs. Fred Ziem of Pontiac; third vice president, Mrs. Carl Queck of Rochester; fourth vice president, Mrs. Herman Luhrs of Lathrup; and fifth vice president, Mrs. Robert F. Watt of Birmingham.

Still others are recording secretary, Mrs. Duncan McVean of Pontiac; assistant recording secretary, Mrs. Bruce Garbutt of Ferndale; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Sadie Williams of Pontiac; treasurer, Mrs. Byron Cole of Waterford; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Arthur W. Vernon of Waterford; auditor, Mrs. Charles J. Barrett of Pontiac; and parliamentarian, Mrs. William Kennedy of Pontiac.

vention was when Guilliani was sworn in as the new adjutant. A dinner party by an associate, Robert Freeman, was given in their honor.

Mrs. John Fisher of 1934 Derby road entertained her neighborhood bridge group recently.

Members included Mrs. Frank Seeburger, Mrs. William Roberts, Mrs. Joseph Rivard, Mrs. Claude Phelps, Mrs. Cople Fisher, Mrs. Richard Montiech, Mrs. Allen Diebold, Mrs. William Talbot, Mrs. Edward Gabert.

Dessert and coffee preceded the session of cards.

Visiting here from Honolulu are Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Kleene and children Ricky and Judy. They are former residents of Birmingham and Kleene is the brother of John Kleene of Derby road.

They enjoyed a delightful trip here aboard the steamship Lurline and have spent most of their time here visiting with old friends and relatives.

Before returning to Honolulu, they plan on touring some of the states.

Shaving was originally a protective measure since long beards were easy for opponents in combat to seize.
