Dinner Parties At DAC Honor Local Guests

Mrs. Howard T. Keating of Lahser road entertained at a family dinner July 2 at the Detroit Athletic club to mark a wedding anniversary and three birthdays.

The July date was the earliest on which Mrs. Keating could get all the honorees together for the June anniversary.

PRESENT were her son and daughter-in-law, the Lee Keatings, whose fifth wedding anniversary was on June 28, that also being Lee's birthday; daughters, Mrs. Timothy Cruice and Mrs. Robert Faught, whose respective birthdays had occurred earlier in June, and Mr. Cruise and Mr. Faught.

Completing the party group were the hostess' other son and daughter-in-law, the Howard T. Keatings, Jr., Mrs. John J. Cruice and Mrs. John Tighe.

ANOTHER dinner at the DAC the same evening was given by Mr. and Mrs. William S. Spierd of Chesterfield road to honor USN Admiral and Mrs. Ligon B. Ard of Bevard, N. C. who were the houseguests of Dr. Lawrence Reynolds of Detroit.

Besides Dr. Reynolds the dinner group included Mrs. Henry Fett and John Howell.

IN A foursome at another table in the club's main dining room were the hostess' other son and daughter-in-law, the Charles Zimmermans—close friends having the same name with only a slight variation in the spelling.

Bride-Elect Feted in July

Parties and more parties are in store for the bride-elect, Mary Hamly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Hamly of Orchard Hill drive, Birmingham. Mary and Charles Kirby Callam are planning a July 13 wedding.
