In a suburban community, people seem to live a more relaxed and leisurely life than do city dwellers. Right here in and about Birmingham, for example, during the warm seasons, one may observe most everybody under 35 or 40 going about in shorts, as they tend to their yards and gardens, or simply rest.

MRS. THEODORE FRANKLIN KIEFER

Kiefer-Sutfin Vows Spoken at St. James

At a ceremony Saturday evening, attended by 200 guests, in St. James Episcopal Church, Charlene Walker Sutfin became the bride of Theodore Franklin Kiefer.

The Rev. Robert Dewey and Rev. William Snoxel performed the 8:30 o'clock ceremony for the daughter of the Carl W. Sutfins, 404 Oak, Birmingham, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Preston Kiefer of Danville, Ind.

CHARLENE chose a gown fashioned of white dupioni silk featuring short sleeves and a scoop neckline outlined with alseum lace. Her full skirt formed a chapel train with a puff at the back of the skirt. A sculptured cap held in place her fingertip veil of silk illusion. To complete the bridal picture, Charlene carried a bouquet of lily-of-the-valley.

Bridesmaids wore identical gowns of white chiffon, with full skirts and cowl necklines and float-

Mary Longdyke Feted at Party

GILBERT LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Longdyke of South Millway, honored their daughter, Mary, upon her graduation from Bloomfield Hills high school with a reception and open house in their home of June 16. Some 60 guests gathered to congratulate Mary.

Her fiancé, Thomas Robinson, came from Green Cove Springs, Florida where he is stationed with the Navy.

On June 23 the Longdykes' daughter, Doreen Louise, was christened at the First Methodist church in Birmingham. The Reverend Allen Wittrop officiated at the afternoon christening. Mary and her fiancé, Tom, were the sponsors.

Following the christening Mrs. Longdyke with Mary and Tom motored north to spend a few days at their summer home on the Au Sable near Grayling.

John Black, Margaret Ann Gardner and Molly Ann Olson of Birmingham.

Robert Kiefer, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Lloyd Sutfin, brother of the bride; Kiefer Mendonhall, nephew of the groom and David R. Casto II, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Sutfin, the bride's mother, wore a wedgewood heather silk organza with a bouffant skirt with matching accessories. The groom's mother chose a rose lace sheath with lilies.

A reception in the church followed the services. After the reception, the couple left for their wedding trip thru the west. The bride's ensemble was a navy blue suit with white accessories.

They will reside in Indianapolis in the Fall.

Engagement Announced

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Jane Seymour and Robert Hamilton Barr. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Vera R. Seymour of German Mill road, Franklin, and the late Lee J. Seymour, and her fiancé is the son of Mrs. Ruth Barr of Pinckney, Mich., and the late Robert E. Barr.

JANE SEYMOUR

Jane will graduate from Wayne State University in August—where she is a member of Alpha Epsilon Rho, national radio and television honorary fraternity.

Her fiancé is attending Eastern Michigan College after spending three years in Germany with the armed forces.

There are no immediate plans for the wedding.
