Hanelines in West
The Drew C. Haneline family of Bradway Blvd., Bloomfield Village, is spending a few days at Del Monte Lodge, Pebble Beach, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis, 16931 Redmere, Birmingham are the parents of the bride. The groom is the son of Ivan Lloyd of Indiana and Mrs. Douglas Swink of Bloomfield Hills.

THE BRIDE wore a floor length gown of lace over satin and tulle with a high collar and flowing bouffant skirt accented with lace down the back. From her pearl-studded crown fell an elbow-length French illusion veil. Her bouquet was of ivy and stephanotis with a center corsage to wear on her honeymoon.

The bride's sister, Barbara Ann Davis, was maid of honor. She was gowned in white embroidered nylon over taffeta with pink chiffon draped neckline and loose streamers flowing down the back. She carried pink baby roses and carnations and wore a white flowered headband.

Sue Miller, of Charlevoix, Elaine Ludwig of Dearborn, and Mrs. Arthur Cameron, sister of the groom, of Dearborn, were bridesmaids. Their dresses, identical to the maid of honor's, were of yellow, green and aqua. They carried yellow flowers.

John Morse of Inkster, was best man. Ushers were James Trinkle of Detroit, Arthur Cameron of Dearborn, and Dennis Davis, brother of the bride, of Madison Heights.

MRS. DAVIS wore a turquoise chantilly/lace sheath dress and white accessories. She had an orchid pinned to her purse.

The mother of the groom wore a royal blue chiffon dress and an orchid.

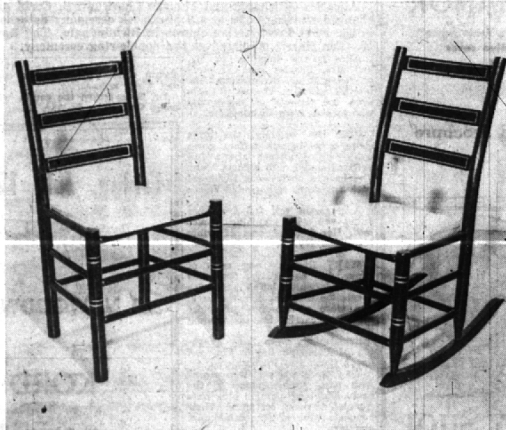

A church reception preceded their wedding trip through the New England states. Before leaving the bride changed into a light blue linen sheath dress with matching jacket and white accessories. Following their return from their honeymoon, the couple will reside in Allen Park.
