Sherman McDonald Garden Site of Ice Cream Social

The Sherman McDonalds' garden on Hickory Heights drive was the setting for an ice cream social on Sunday, June 21. The 80 guests, all immediate neighbors, were intrigued as they watched the making of four gallons of delicious ice cream and each person went home with the idea of making their own ice cream from now on. Many gathered around the attractive tree well to enjoy cake and strawberries with their ice cream.

Mrs. McDonald's mother, Mrs. Sarah Straight of Grand Rapids, has been visiting the McDonalds and was the honor guest at the party.

Seventy children in hobo costumes gathered at the Eastover school last Friday morning for a "Hobo Hike" through the Eastover subdivision with William McGuire, the school's principal, in the lead. The tramps and hobos arrived in all sorts of get-ups, carrying their lunches in knapsacks. Others joining in the hike were Virginia Dowling and Elaine Banks, junior high students.

The judges, Mrs. Arthur Chauvin, Mrs. Wilfred Böhler, Mrs. Henry Kasarian and Mrs. William Dewey, had a difficult time awarding prizes as each hobo was excellently attired.

The group split up into two groups after the hike, with one group going swimming in the David DeWitts' pool on Tutbury lane and the second group taking their dip in the Myron Zbudowski's pool on Bloomcrest.

Mrs. Fred Hammond of Charing Cross road and her daughter, Mrs. John Major of Royal Oak, co-hosted a cocktail party last Saturday evening at the Hammond residence. The occasion brought a group of friends together that hadn't seen each other for years. From Birmingham came the William Osgoods, the John Dunkels and the Arthur Covilles. From Ann Arbor came the Wilfred Suttons and the Edward Shafers. Other guests were the Arthur Horlers, the William Banks and the Ray Bakers.

The Donald Smiths and sons, David and Ross, of Oakhill drive, Thornwood, motored to their cottage over the fourth of July weekend. The cottage is located at Honey Harbor in Georgian Bay, Canada.

Celebrating the holiday with the Henry Gaukiers of Pine lake were the Fred Hammonds of Charing Cross road. Water skiing and swimming held the interest of everyone which included the Hammond children, Nansette, Jim, Bill,

"Mrs. Sales" is going shopping!

The lady above, sketched by our fashion artist, is one of the smartest women we know and one of our favorite customers, too! We have known her well ever since her debutante days and have enjoyed her fashion life from that time on. We know that "Mrs. Sales" always displays great taste in choosing her clothes and that she is regarded as one of the best-dressed women in town. In fact, she is so beautifully dressed that wherever she is seen, at church, at clubs, at parties, even at the super-market, people say, "Isn't she stunning? How does she do it?" They really do wonder, too, because "Mrs. Sales" is not a particularly well-to-do woman and it is obvious that she must have to work within a limited dress allowance. But, her taste is such that she simply is not satisfied with less than the best, so long ago she worked out her own solution. What is it? Why, it's simple. She chooses exactly what she wants as if cost were no object, but she buys it on sale! She appears in the finest fashions, frequently ones that carry the most famous labels, but she buys them in her own shopping season, during our sales! We know, because "Mrs. Sales" has been in for our current Sales already and just wait till you see what she's picked out! It's no wonder to us that "Mrs. Sales" is so admired. She ought to be. We salute your smartness, "Mrs. S.", both kinds!
