

Make European Trip by Air

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Puls, 185 Linden road, Birmingham, returned by plane from Dublin, completing a trip made almost entirely by air covering Southern and Central Europe and ending with ten days in England, Scotland and Ireland.

Their trip began with visits in Portugal, Spain and Rome. Of special interest were the trips to Vienna and the beautiful mountain resorts in Switzerland.

A VISIT to the oldest university in Germany at Heidelberg and the all day trip down the Rhine river from Weis Baden to Kohn was another highlight.

Another thrill was the helicopter trip from Paris to Brussels. They also visited the famous Ascot races where they saw the royal family in attendance near London.

Their visits in Scotland at Edinburgh and Glasgow were of particular interest. Mrs. Puls' parents brought and Glasgow were of particular interest.

Parents Announce Winter Marriage

FRANKLIN — Mr. and Mrs. Philip Price of Colony Hill, announce the marriage of their daughter, Bernice Karen, to Paul Charles Camp, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Camp of Walnut Lake. The young couple were married January 5 at the Mt. Hope Methodist church in Detroit.

Suzanne Racette Engaged to Marry

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Racette, 371 Greenwood, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Suzanne, to Charles McLaughlin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLaughlin of Berkeley. They are planning an August 31 wedding.

Johnson-Chermside United in Marriage

LATHROP — Patricia Ann Chermside and Robert Johnson were united in marriage Saturday morning at St. Scholastica's church in the presence of 100 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. John Chermside of Sunderland, Detroit, and the Randall Johnsons of 10 Mile road and Southfield.

THE BRIDE'S sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. John M. Tracey, entertained at a wedding reception in the garden of their Morningglade Plaza home immediately following the ceremony. For her wedding day, Patricia chose an organza tulle gown with a chantilly lace bodice and a tier skirt with matching lace. A beaded headress secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. John M. Tracey was the matron of honor and her daughter, Marie, was the flower girl. The bridesmaids, Mrs. John Chermside and Joanne Ellison wore white eyellet organza gowns with pastel underskirts the same color as their cummerbund sashes, which were of turquoise.

MRS. TRACEY and her daughter's cummerbunds and underskirts were lilac. They carried bouquets of cascades of daisies dyed to match the color of their sashes. The hats were also of matching colors.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of pink lace and the groom's mother chose a beige silk. The best man was Walter Israel of New York. John Chermside, brother of the bride, Dr. John Tracey and Bill Toeppie were ushers.

The bride and groom are presently touring Northern Michigan and upon their return, they will make their home in northwest Detroit.
