Bicycle Party a Big Success

LATHRUP—The bicycle party organized by Mrs. Clarence Manix on a recent evening was highly successful considering that she expected 35 children and 65 turned out.

Although she missed last year, Mrs. Manix has given the bicycle party two other years and the children love it. They are all invited to decorate their bikes and turn out for a short parade up and down Amherst avenue in Beverly Manor.

This year, the parade was restricted to children from 2 to 12 years with a group of six teenagers acting as judges.

Young Craig Becker seemed to be the smallest parader on his three-wheel bike which was decorated with fringes of colored crepe paper.

IT CAME from outer space! Not really, of course, but Jim Haefner (above), complete with a pilot's helmet and goggles, and his bike, complete with wings, gave that impression at the Lathrup bicycle party.

Fireworks Display A Success Despite One-Day Delay

LATHRUP—Although the Lathrup fireworks display was rained out July 4, it made a special occasion of July 5 and the attendance filled the fields with cars between Southfield and Rainbow drive.

Before the display, children romped and played in the grass cut by the Lathrup Police Youth Recreation department. The mosquitoes kept away and neighbors had time for leisurely chats.

With the assistance of Explorer Post LC-1, the police were able to direct cars for easy entrance and exit, since all entrances to the show were cut off except for Rainbow Drive.

At the close of the program, the police and Explorers moved the nearly 500 cars from the parking lot in 15 minutes by actual count.

Lathrup Police Get Tips on Handling Juvenile Problems

LATHRUP—In a meeting last week with Albert Casey, Oakland County juvenile officer, and Bob DeVillia, newly appointed Lathrup juvenile officer, Lathrup's volunteer police received some pointers on juvenile problems and handling.

Casey advised the officers to make immediate contact with parents wherever they find juvenile problems.

To date, Lathrup's juvenile cases have been kept at a minimum, and through their youth recreation program, Lathrup police hope to keep it that way.

Gilbert Lake Social Briefs

GILBERT LAKE—Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Glowacki of Jonathan Lane will honor Mary Hamby and Ena Charles Kirby Callam of the U. S. Naval Air Force at a small dinner party in their home this evening. Miss Hamby and Ena Callam are to be married Saturday.

GILBERT LAKE—A recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hishaw of Pen Valley was their grandson, Joseph McMillan III. He spent a week with the Hishaws enroute from his home in Morrisstown, N. J., to the B-I ranch in Wyoming.

GILBERT LAKE—The J. Robert Howlands of Orchard Bend motored to Canada last weekend for a Saturday picnic with friends.

Flys to New York To Greet Fiance

LATHRUP—Miss Carol Starkey plans to fly to New York with Mrs. Lloyd Wiggins to greet her fiance, Ken Wiggins, who has spent the past year in Munich, Germany.

Wiggins, who is a senior at Wayne State university, won a year's scholarship for study in Germany. While there he purchased a Leica camera and has taken pictures of his travels in Czechoslovakia, Italy and Spain, which the Starkeys are very anxious to see.

Miss, flew to Atlanta, Ga., Sunday for a three-week visit with friends. He will be staying with Jim Powell, formerly of Coral Gables, who moved down south this past May.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stasak of Margate spent July 4 at the Round lake cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Doyle, also of Margate.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Terova of San Diego spent four days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kent Johnson, of Torch Lake. Terova's mother, Mrs. William Terova, was a guest also, as well as his two children, Barbara and Janet.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stasak of Margate spent July 4 at the Round lake cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Doyle, also of Margate.

Mrs. LaVern Kass of Beverly Hills, Chicago, is visiting the William Collins of Redwood.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cobb of Banglow drive recently had visitors from Alpena. Mrs. Cobb's sister and husband were here with their two daughters. The visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Landry, Rita Jean and Mary Ann, were shown many of the sights of surrounding areas, among which were the zoo and a trip to Bob-Lo island.

Cobb has just returned from a short business trip to Peru, Ind.

Bill Starkey, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Starkey of Coral Gables, is visiting the William Collins of Redwood.

40 Teen-Agers Attend Dance

LATHRUP—Approximately 40 teen-agers turned out for the dance at the St. Bede's Youth club held June 28 and called the "Summer Shuffles". Besides the usual refreshments of coke and potato chips, the mothers baked a large batch of cupcakes for the group.

There was dancing by the juke box and plenty of starter dances like the "snowball" to get everyone acquainted with each other.

Chaperones for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. James Brook, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gaddard, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Phillips and Mrs. Robert O'Leary.

LATHRUP—Its possible John Charles Sinek of Banglow avenue will grow up to be a lexicographer or linguist. Although he is only 8 years old, John is an expert at making up words to please his own ideas. John's latest word is "dodel." As John explains it, a cowboylan dodel up the street, or dodel can describe the way the long silky hair on his collar sways as he ambles along.

Two Baptized

LATHRUP—Two children were baptized at St. Bede's church June 30. They were Susan Therese Kargetta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kargetta, and Terrence William Paradise, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Paradise.

Leave on Cruise To North Cape

LATHRUP—Miss Kathryn Hines of Goldengate and her grandmother, Mrs. Belle Pagonkoff, left July 1 on the Norwegian liner, Bergensfjord, for a 41-day North Cape cruise.

Their first stop will be Reykjavik, Iceland, in the land of the midnight sun, and then on to Norway, Sweden, Finland, Denmark, North Germany, Belgium and Holland. They expect to be back around August 12.

Move Program Ahead

LATHRUP—Since the rains Monday cancelled the scheduled play in the Lathrup Women's Golf league, the program has been moved up one week. Golfers will play their July 8 opponents July 15.

Back from Vacations

LATHRUP—Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lading and daughter Debbie have returned from a 10-day visit to Hartford, Conn. Other returning vacationers are the R. J. Gannots of San Diego drive who spent a long Fourth of July weekend visiting in Cleveland, Ohio.

You will find many bargains in The Eccentric Classified Columns.

New Explorers

LATHRUP—Explorer post LC-1 has two new registered members, Bill Kimberley and Leo Mueller, bringing membership up to 15.

Snakes have as many as 900 pairs of ribs.
