

It is perfectly proper and quite wonderful for two young adolescents to fall in love... If they keep it wholesome, even though their paths may part, the experience should do them good for later maturity. Fortunately, indeed, one who also can be influenced by such sentimental memories through life.

Creative Art Is Stressed At Workshops

"Work while you play is the slogan of elementary and high school students attending the vacation program of art workshops at the Bloomfield Art Association. The youngsters are given expert instructions by trained personnel in the use of creative materials—paint, clay, paper and other mediums of the artist. Leading talented hands are Mrs. Eric Davison and Mrs. Sherman Handy.

AT LEFT: First and second graders, Andy Bawden, Pamela Van Rennes, Katie Lerchen and Jane Van Rennes are testing their skill at painting clay molds.

AT RIGHT: Creative ability is displayed by fifth and sixth graders. Suggestions and helpful criticism is offered by their instructors.

Oxford, England Will Be Scene Of Maxwell-Cave Wedding Rites

WING LAKE—Charles Thorburn Maxwell II, son of Mrs. Genevieve Maxwell, formerly of Wing Lake, will be married Saturday, at 2:30 p.m. in St. John's College chapel, Oxford, England.

"Toby," as he is known by his many friends throughout the Birmingham area, is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harding of 6294 Worthington road, Wing Lake.

HIS BRIDE-TO-BE, Ann Cave, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Cave of "Grange Thorpe," at Grange-over-Sands, Lancashire, England. She was born in Johannesburg, S. Africa. During her infancy, her family returned to England where her father pursued a career of free-lance writing. With his family, he tours the continent, taking pictures and writing articles.

Ann was educated at Fairfield, P.N.E.V. in the Lake district and later attended college in Oxford.

TOBY, now 26, was born in Bryn Mawr, Pa., and began his schooling at Germantown Friends school at Germantown, Pa. He later graduated from Cranbrook school Cum Laude. He graduated from Princeton university Magna Cum Laude in politics and then attended the University of Michigan from where he was given the Marshall scholarship to Oxford university for three years. He was graduated from Oxford this past June 20, and it was at one of the social engagements at Oxford that Toby and Ann met.

THE couple's formal engagement was announced June 20 at Oxford university among a host of mutual friends.

Following the engagement party, Toby left for Wales, Scotland and Ireland with his cousin, Allen Maxwell of Indianapolis, Indiana, and Bruce McComber, former room mate from his Princeton days.

Bruce is a mining engineer and the boys are making the 3-week trip with him in his interest in the mountains of these countries.

Bruce and Allen will stay for the wedding.

THEIR two-week honeymoon will be spent in Germany Rhineland, after which they will sail from England August 13 for the U.S.

Toby's mother, Mrs. Genevieve Maxwell, who is a journalist on the Lebanon Daily Star of Beirut, arrived by plane in England last Saturday, July 13, to attend the wedding. She joined Ann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cave to stay at the Randolph hotel in Oxford, England. Following the wedding and the reception which is to be at St. John's college, Oxford, she will return immediately to Beirut.

ANN CAVE

UPON their arrival in the U.S., the couple will visit friends and relatives in New York and Washington D.C. They will be at home at 6294 Worthington road, Wing Lake, after September first, where they will make their home with Toby's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harding.

Classic Show To Benefit New Convent

Plans for a new school in Bloomfield Hills have motivated 30 young women who will meet at the old Convent of the Sacred Heart, Lawrence avenue, Detroit, today to organize what will be the last, and they hope, the best party in the old school.

An afternoon fashion show—"Presenting Ruth Joyce Classics" will take place October 2. Proceeds will benefit the new school.

The fashion show, which will feature original designs by Miss Joyce, is co-sponsored by the Alumnae of the Sacred Heart, Lawrence avenue, and the Janet Stuart Association (parents of students).

MRS. Hanley Taylor is general chairman of the party. She will be assisted by Miss Dorothy Loveley, alumnae president, and Mrs. Harry Seltz, president of the Janet Stuart association.

Other chairmen who will attend next Thursday's meeting will be Mrs. Doreen Taylor, Mrs. William J. Oldani, Mrs. Frank Weston, Mrs. A. Darin, Mrs. George R. Cheadle, Mrs. John E. Steiner, Mrs. Frank Brady, Mrs. Richard Cleary, Mrs. Frank E. Werrell, Mrs. Don E. Abrams, Mrs. G. William Gensler, Mrs. Thomas J. Bennett, Mrs. Leon E. Briggs, Mrs. Milford E. Woodbeck, Mrs. Clemens J. Heilebock.

Visit Ranch of Mom's Idol

A Caravan of 11 Mercury station wagons and a bunch of excited teen-age girls left several weeks ago for a Chet Sampson tour... laughter and enthusiasm will be the environment for the 8,000-mile trip, visiting every point of interest from here to California.

Two of the highlights of the trip will be the four days spent in Hollywood and the overnight visit to the ranch of their mothers' idol in their days... the well-known 'Bing Crosby's.

Among those from the Birmingham area enjoying the tour are Janet Kegel, Sue Bollinger, Gay Birchard, Karen Van Fleet, Carol Thurman, Linda Stevenson, Sally Saltwaterhite, Pixie Yingling and Gail Sison.

A letter going something like this, will probably be received by some of the parents...

Havein' Fun, Need mon,

Callams Will Live in Florida After Honeymoon at Mackinac

Six attendants in pale blue silk shantung gowns preceded Mary Elizabeth Hamly down the aisle of St. Hugo of the Hills church for her marriage Saturday afternoon to Charles Kirby Callam. The Rev. Francis T. Stack solemnized the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Harold Hamly of Orchard Hill drive, Birmingham, wore a ballerina length wedding gown of white embroidered organza trimmed with French lace which featured a V-neckline and short sleeves. A lace crown held in place her fingertip veil of silk illusion and French lace. White stephanotis and orchids made up her bouquet.

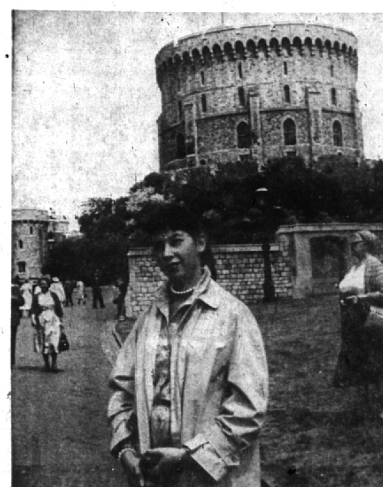

VIRGINIA Hamly served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert E. Hamly, Mrs. John B. Mager, Mrs. Dixon M. Hall, Willie Kavanaugh and Maryjo Nichols. They wore velvet headpieces trimmed with matching forget-me-nots. Their bouquets were fashioned of white carnations and ivy.

The groom, son of Capt. and Mrs. Walter Wm. Callam of Amherburg, Ont., asked Alexander Callam to be best man. Ushers were Daniel Shaaban, Robert Hamly, Fred Wilson, Lt. J. G. Albert Wittman and Walter Wm. Callam.

MRS. Hamly attended her daughter's wedding in a pale blue dress and a white orchid. The mother of the groom accented her beige lace over blue taffeta with a white orchid. A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the services. After the reception the couple left for their wedding trip to Mackinac. The bride's ensemble was a navy cotton suit with white accessories. The newlyweds will make their home in Jacksonville, Fla.
