To See the Tigers

A number of members of the Senior Men's club are going to take in a base ball game at the Briggs Stadium today. A book of tickets has been procured and five cars will leave the Community House for the game at 12 o'clock. A picnic is planned for August 16 at the Springdale Park. The Picnic Committee is also planning other activities for the day.

Garrisons Host Picnic
With a Gallic Flavor

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Garrison played host to 75 guests from the MacManus, John and Adams Consumer Package Products group at their home in Franklin last Sunday.

The Garrisons, who recently spent 15 days in France—where the young advertising executive was expediting the production of a client's film—savored the famous cuisines, bistros and historical spots of Paris. That is why this year's picnic had a Gallic flavor. Sunday was the 108th birthday of French civil independence. Travel posters heralding the romance of the French nation decorated the Garrison grounds. Lawn games included one called "jocart." Refreshments included pastry with icing that featured a red, white and blue French flag and the words "Happy Bastille Day."

BOB AND VAL Garrison inaugurated the annual picnic three years ago. Garrison, who is vice president in charge of the group, holds with a theory that a summer picnic can serve as a many-purposed event. As a social gathering, mates and sweethearts get a chance to meet other mates and sweethearts.

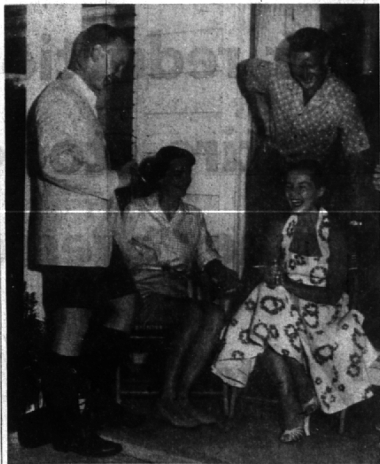

As an office gathering, some of the sharp edges are removed from the stress and strains in the daily contacts of a busy advertising staff. The relaxed, informal atmosphere of a successful Sunday picnic, makes for better creativity on Monday, and at the same time gives the "boss" a chance to say "hello" from behind a croquet mallet or badminton net. This change of setting is good for everybody, Garrison believes.

GUESTS included Mr. and Mrs. John E. MacManus of Guilford road and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Jones of Bloomfield Hills; Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Adams of Dakota circle; the Charles N. Campbell of Stanley; the William B. Eversons of Sheringham drive; the Marc C. Iveys of Old Trinity court; the Robert Markers of Witherbee road; the David Raymonds of Hunting street; and the John O. Wilkinsons of Windemere road, all of Birmingham.

FRENCH PASTRY was the "piece de resistance" featured at the MacManus, John and Adams Bastille Day picnic, Sunday, at the Robert L. Garrison home on Franklin Court in Franklin. Sally Garri-

The list continues with Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Jones of Burley; Mr. and Mrs. Stephen P. Dougherty of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Lukacs and daughter, Joan, of Detroit; the Milner W. Thoms of Orchard Lake; the M. A. Tuskala of Royal Oak; the Carl B. Wheelers and the Donald H. Toolins of Grosse Pointe and Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Fownes, Jr., of New York City.

THE INFORMALITY of a Sunday picnic is enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. William B. Everson, 6420 Sheringham drive, Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Milner Thom of Orchard Lake. The annual affair offers an opportunity for the MJ&A agency men's wives to meet.

OUTDOORS"

The growing American habit of indoor-outdoor living calls for special equipment to make it thoroughly enjoyable.

Lawn coasters, high-balls with sippers, barbecue napkins, mansized salad bowls, outdoor china, and a good charcoal broiler, with convenient accessories . . . these are a few of the things which serve you well when you decide to go outdoors instead of remaining in.

It's a pleasant habit, when the "equipment" is good.
