

Graefield-Derby Family Reunion is Highlight Of Trip to Ocean City, N.J.

Just returned from two weeks at Ocean City, N. J., are Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Reardon and their six children, Mary Beth, Paul, Maureen, David, Johnnie and Tommie, of Brooklawn court, Troyton Manor. They took with them Jacquie Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Young of Witherbee road, Troyton Manor.

Motoring to their cottage on the Atlantic, they enjoyed swimming, fishing, bike riding on the board walk, lobster dinner and visiting a nearby amusement park.

Highlight of the trip was a family reunion which was attended by the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Cobb, Jr.; an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William Broderick, and cousins Billy and Mark; John Cobb, the paternal grandfather, Mrs. M. A. Reardon, and another uncle, Edward Reardon, and cousins Timmy and Eddie.

A white flag bearing blue dots announced to the residents of Brooklawn road that Ward Hawley was born on July 2. Born in St. Joseph Mercy hospital in Pontiac, Ward is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Garth Hawley of 910 Brooklawn road, Troyton Manor. He welcomed home by his five brothers and sisters, Dennis, John and Cindy Ann.

Michael Warbois, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Warbois of 1654 Graefield road, is the youngest of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Brent Paul McKee, and cousins Kathy and Marcia, at their summer home at Broken Rocks near Port Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Klintworth of 894 Brooklawn road had as their houseguest recently Mrs. Klintworth's sister and her friend, Miss Doris Williams and Miss Marjory Flich from Seattle, Washington. The two girls have been touring the United States and plan to go to Washington, D. C. from here.

While here, they toured the Plymouth plant, took part in interesting trips around points of interest in the city and also spent several days shopping.

On their newly-extended 18-foot Century speedboat, the "Mard", Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hopper and son David, of 1954 Graefield road, took a trip to the Clear river last week to visit Mrs. Hopper's parents.

Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Glowski of Jonathan Wood in Birmingham, hosted a family dinner last Thursday evening, honoring Mary Elizabeth Hamly and Eas. Charles C. Callum and the immediate families.

On the evening of July 10, Capt. and Mrs. Walter Callum, parents of Charles Callum, entertained at Devon Gables for their son and Mary Hamly and the bridal party. The wedding took place Saturday at St. Hugo church.

A few days in the Bronx, N. Y., was spent by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Penninger and children Peggy and Willie of 1611 Witherbee road.

While in the exciting city, they stayed with Penninger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Penninger, and visited such noted spots as the United Nations, as well as the Mayflower II, now docked in the New York harbor. The children enjoyed a day in the country at Bedford Hills, N. Y., on the family's farm.

The James Careys of 1814 Witherbee road visited Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carey, Carey's parents, in Woodbury, Va., recently with children Jimmy and Monica. Jimmy will remain there for the balance of the month to swim and visit with friends.

On their return trip, the Careys stopped to show Monica Niagara Falls.

To celebrate her second birthday, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Klintworth of 894 Brooklawn road held a party for their daughter, Cathie, and some of her neighborhood friends.

Those present for the gala affair were Brian Lipperd, Douglas Ross, Robbie Mansfield and David Mahan and their mothers. The children especially appreciated the Muppet Mouse motif, and playing together.

The Old Mill Tavern in Waterford was the meeting place recently for 15 couples who are original and new home owners of houses on Derby road between Graefield and Eton road.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eddy of Derby road entertained the group prior to the dinner with cocktails in their home. After dining, they enjoyed dancing, and some of the group showed their musical talent by entertaining the rest in a "jam session" while the others sang along with them.

Neighbors bid farewell this past week to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carpenter and sons Douglas and David, of 961 Brooklawn road, Troyton Manor.

The family moved in order for Carpenter to start his new position in Akron, Ohio, as executive director of the Tri-County Planning commission. They will reside at 824 Bowman drive in Kent, Ohio.

A Fourth of July garden party was held by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lewis of 1660 Derby road. Those attending the affair were Derby neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oldani, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nette, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Webb, Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. George Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Al Firth and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Singstacken and the children of all.

Everyone brought his own picnic lunch and enjoyed an afternoon of badminton and croquet, while the children were fascinated with the Fourth of July sparklers.

The evening ended with everyone gathering inside for some singing and dancing.

Some of the residents on Witherbee road in Troyton Manor gathered in the Howard Ross' backyard for a barbecue on the Fourth of July. The group played badminton and table tennis and in the evening went to the Thomas Schulters for dessert and coffee and relaxed in their recreation room for games and cards.

Included in the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Myron In Waterford, Mr. and Mrs. James Boyce and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Monley.

Ten days were spent in a cottage at Mackinaw City by Mr. David Lewis of 1599 Witherbee road and Charles Sharon, Charles and David. Lewis was able to visit them over the Fourth of July weekend.

They especially enjoyed a carefree few days for swimming and resting, but the highlight of the occasion was a family reunion to celebrate the 72nd birthday of Mrs. Lewis' mother, Mrs. May Miles.

Lewis left Sunday to start his new position as training consultant for the Prudential Life Insurance Co. in Minneapolis, the home office. The family hopes to follow soon.

Beck Family Back at Home After Trip to Southeast U.S.

Returning home from a trip through the southeast are the Edward Becks of Meadowlane drive. One week was spent in the mountains at Tryon, N. C., visiting Beck's parents, the A. E. Becks. With them on the trip were their three children, Judy, Barbara and Tom, and their Chris Craft boat. They spent the week at Tryon learning to water ski and are now avid fans of the sport.

Their next stop was Falls Church, Va., where they visited friends for a week. During their stay, they made many side trips to Washington, D. C., to see the many sights.

The John Brooks and their three children, Mary Pat, Chuck and Tommy, have just returned to their home on Charing Cross road after a relaxing week at Hubbard lake near Alpena. They enjoyed cottage life with the Daniel Bowers of Crooks' road, and their four children.

While there, they took a side trip to Mackinac island.

Another family home after spending 10 days at a cottage on Grand Traverse bay are the Ira Goolings and their daughters, Joanne, Judy and Jill, of Meadowlane drive.

While on the bay, they took side trips to the wild and beautiful Torch lake, and to Charlevoix. They also saw many interesting sights in and around Traverse City.

The John Virgins are home again on Meadowlane drive after a week's vacation at Somerset, Pa. With them on the trip was Mrs. Virgin's sister, Mrs. June Gasser of Royal Oak. They found travel-
