MRS. ROBERT PETER LARSON

Holy Name Church Is Scene of Wedding

Holy Name Church was the scene Saturday morning of the wedding of Ethyl Carolyn Roehm and P. Larson. The Rev. Francis Stack performed the 11:30 o'clock ceremony. Ethyl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walter Roehm of Woodlawn, Franklin, and her husband is the son of the August Larsons of Bingham road, Birmingham.

White picture hats and cascades of pink roses and ivy completed their costumes.

Richard Bireley of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., stood as best man. David Campbell and Bing Stunney of Birmingham, David Roehm of Franklin, Robert McDaniel, also of Birmingham, John Kasten of Madison Heights, served as ushers.

The bride's mother chose a navy blue lace dress and Mrs. Larson selected an aqua lace. Both mothers had white orchids for the wedding.

Mrs. Victor White of Lansing was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Maureen Garwood, Judy Turner, Sue Savage, Helen Colwell, Patty Harman and Mrs. Robert Holcomb, all of Birmingham.

ATTENDANTS were gowned in crystal white nylon, accented by wide pink taffeta cummerbunds.

FOLLOWING the wedding reception at the Bloomfield Hills Country club, the new Mrs. Larson changed to a powder blue silk shantung sheath with navy blue accessories for her honeymoon trip to Florida.

The couple will make their home in Ohio.

First Family Reunion

A reunion in Ontario last Saturday was a "first" for the Mills family . . . and was planned before moves are made to different parts of the States. Gathering for the occasion at Mrs. Walter Rae's home in Russell Woods, near Tecumseh, were brothers and sisters, (seated from left) Richard D. Mills of Troy, who is moving to California in August; William L. Mills, Mrs. William L. Sturgeon of Allen Park, who is moving to Buffalo; Thomas J. Mills, 1064 Westwood, Birmingham; Mrs. Rae, and Mrs. Arthur Stellwagon (standing).
