Cranbrook Village Social Briefs

CRANBROOK—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Harrison of Fall River recently returned from a trip to Goderich, Ont. Daughter Margaret accompanied them. The Harrisons spent the week at the summer home of Harrison's mother and father, Dr. and Mrs. Wesley Harrison. The time was spent relaxing and having a real week.

CRANBROOK—Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Benuay of Fall River road spent a pleasant two weeks in Miami, Fla. Son Brian went along for the vacation, which was spent in swimming and relaxing.

CRANBROOK—Mr. and Mrs. John R. Lees of Fall River held a block party in their garden over the fourth of July holiday. Along with the charcoal broiled steaks, there were salads and par-fait pies.

Among the couples attending the cocktail were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Darby Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Stewart. The children of these couples also joined in the fun.

CRANBROOK—A new addition to the William Angrove family of Westbrook parkway is William Lee, born at Deaconess hospital in Detroit June 21. The new arrival weighed 8 pounds 3 ounces. The Angroves have another child, Cynthia, 20 months old. The family is planning a celebration for July 25 when William Lee will be baptized.

CRANBROOK—Mrs. Leo F. Schmidt of Autumn lane recently returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Roberts, of Wheaton, Ill. After a week in Wheaton, Mrs. Schmidt spent four days in Grand Rapids visiting her sisters-in-law and then went on to her cottage, which she just opened up, in North Shores on Lake Erie near LaSalle.

San Francisco Trip Proves Interesting To the Watchowskis

LATHRUP—Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Watchowski of Blackstone just came back from a pleasant trip to San Francisco. On the way down, they stopped in Las Vegas, where they saw shows featuring Jack Benny and Gisele McKenzie. They also stopped off to see the Grand Canyon.

In San Francisco, they saw many of the local sights, driving around Alcatraz, visiting Chinatown and Fisherman's wharf and attending many of the musicals and comedies at the Cow Palace.

While Watchowski was attending many of the town club convention meetings, Mrs. Watchowski attended the fashion shows and breakfasts which were held for the ladies.

After coming back to town, the Watchowskis spent a few days at their cottage on Lake Huron.

Explorers Visit Detroit Police, Take Canoe Trip

LATHRUP—From early Saturday morning to late Monday afternoon, Explorers of Post LC-1 held themselves a "shabli."

Shivardi morning, seven Explorers, accompanied by Ted Garrison Sr., set out by canoe from trip down the Huron river. Monday afternoon they were guests of the Detroit police department for a tour of headquarters.

Since 11 members of the post will spend an entire week in August canoeing in Algonquin Provincial park in Canada, the two-day trip last weekend was something of a toughening cruise.

Saturday night was spent camping on an island in Kent lake. Sunday they followed the Huron river through its flooded twists and turns and five portages to US-23 where they were met by the canoe trailer and taken back to their starting point.

THE BOYS on the canoe trip were Steve Marshall, Bill Mueller, Darryl Pfister, Al Levy, Jeff Zaitelli, Gene Gourley and Ted Garrison, Jr.

The Detroit police department tour gave the Explorers an inside on the workings of the various aspects of crime prevention. Starting in the police gym, the boys toured the police lab, gun ranges and the detention house.

Girl Scouts Spend Weekend Camping Near Port Huron

LATHRUP—The Girl Scouts of Troop 166 recently spent a weekend at Lakesport State park north of Port Huron. The girls did pioneer camping, cooking their own meals and sleeping in pup tents.

They formed patrols and went on hikes. On Saturday evening they built a campfire and put on a minstrel show.

Mrs. Austin Kronmeyer was a committee member who went along with troop leaders Mrs. Vaughan Fegley and Mrs. William Commons. The girls who went on the trip were Winnie Braun, Cheryl Commons, Lois Herman, Jane Herick, Judy Hines and Martha Kronmeyer.

Also attending were Kathy Kronmeyer, Sally Miller, Barbara Moore, Christine Ren, Betty Starkey and Judy Westeward.

No Later than 11 p.m.

LATHRUP—Council voted Monday to halt all council sessions at 11 p.m.

Lathrup Social Briefs

LATHRUP—Miss Janet Terova, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curt Terova of San Diego, celebrated her third birthday with a party for 12 of her friends July 9. Each guest was presented with a decorated box containing lunch, prizes and balloons. Many of the mothers came with their children.

Those attending the party, along with Janet and her sister, Barbara, were cousins Linda and Connie Ellen Terova, Jimmy Burdy, Christine and Nancy Rakos, Ricky Slavic, Johnny Tucker, Becky Morris, Jackie Cleary and Christine Austin.

LATHRUP—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brenner of Lathrup spent a pleasant week at the northern Michigan lake in Canada, the two-day trip last weekend was something of a toughening cruise.

With the Brenners were Ellen Terova, Jimmy Burdy, Christine and Nancy Rakos, Ricky Slavic, Johnny Tucker, Becky Morris, Jackie Cleary and Christine Austin.

Each of the time was spent fishing, swimming and just plain relaxing, as well as visiting the sand dunes in Glen Haven.

LATHRUP—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Milne of Glenwood spent several pleasant days at Bert lake in northern Michigan near the Straits. With them were their children, Ricky, Mark and Sheron.

Besides sightseeing around the countryside, the Milnes partook of some water skiing. Because of such an enjoyable time, they plan to go back later in the season.

LATHRUP—Mr. and Mrs. Renno Garrison of Dobros recently were sent on a trip out West by the Macabees, honoring the Garrison agency for having the second highest production in the company.

The Garrisons spent five days at the Many Glaciers hotel at Glacier National park in Montana. They took a side trip coming home and stopped at Banff National park in Alberta, Can. They got in some fishing and took many, many pictures of the beautiful scenery they saw along the way.

Miss Sheron Milne of Glenwood flew to Rockford, Ill., for 10 days to see a former Lathrup resident, Miss Su Su Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ruth.

LATHRUP—Visiting the Alphonse Toppetos of Lathrup is Mrs. Toppeto's sister, Miss Maria Garbin, from Pittsburgh, Pa. She will be here for several days visiting friends in the season.

Toppeto's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Toppeto, of the same address, are currently visiting friends in Wheeling, W. Va.

LATHRUP—Mr. and Mrs. Victor Fafer of Coral Gables just returned from a four-day visit to see Mrs. Fafer's brother in Indianapolis, Ind. It was Mrs. Fafer's first trip there and she especially enjoyed sightseeing along the way.

LATHRUP—David Ewers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ewers of Lathrup, recently went to Indiana with his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Duane McConnell, to visit a cousin, and then went on to Nebraska to visit his other grandparents. It was quite a trip for an 11-year-old boy, and David

Detroit Woman Hurt In Sunday Collision

BLOOMFIELD TWP.—A Detroit woman was injured when three cars collided at 7 p.m. Sunday at Franklin and West Maple roads.

Two cars, driven by Sanford A. Szaaly, 18277 Archdale, Detroit, and William R. Fitzpatrick, 19950 Oakfield, Detroit, were stopped on Maple at the intersection. Chester Mocaraki, 548 Joslyn, Pontiac, was unable to stop his automobile, collided with Fitzpatrick's and pushed it into Szaaly's.

Lamore Condo, 18452 Freeland, Detroit, a passenger in Fitzpatrick's car, was treated at a nearby hospital, Royal Oak, for lacerations of the left side.

got a bit homesick and decided to fly back home while the McConeills went on to Arizona for an additional two weeks.

LATHRUP—Four of the ladies of Lathrup met at the home of Mrs. George Serick of Wilshire bridge and a dessert luncheon last week. Those who attended were Mrs. Alphonse Toppeto, Mrs. L. P. Hourihan, Mrs. Earle Hoener and Mrs. John Kraw.

LATHRUP—Mark Alexander Hetes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Frank Hetes, was baptized at St. Bede's church July 6.

Inside information: Lathrup Woman's club program committee have just finished their plans for the '57-'58 season. Highlighting their October program is Mrs. Max Williams of Royal Oak who will speak on "The Faith to Face and Security." Ann Landers, nationally known columnist, has agreed to speak at the February meeting of the club.

More Inside Information: We hear that Nellie Roberts, who is visiting in England with husband George, has learned to drive, and likes her little car so much she is considering bringing it home with her. She writes that she is looking forward to buzzing along Lathrup streets in her handsome little foreign car.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jastrzemski of Eldorado have returned from a pleasant vacation at Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Muskoka, Can. Ten-year-old Edward is spending two weeks at Camp DeSales at Vineyard lake while sister Sylvia visits friends in Jackson.
