James S. Ross Family Plans Move to Caracas, Venezuela

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Ross of Roland drive will soon be living in Caracas, Venezuela. Ross, an employee of Chrysler Motor co. as manager of the manufacturing of Dodge trucks, is being sent to Caracas as managing director of the new Chrysler assembly plant which the company recently purchased there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross will leave for Caracas Aug. 1. She will spend two weeks there house-hunting and will then return to wind up final details here, pack the family and leave for good Sept. 1.

The Ross children, Russell, 7, and Laurie, 4, are excited about this new milestone in their lives which they consider a truly big adventure.

Ross' mother, Mrs. Stuart A. Ross of Pleasant Ridge, will join them and make her home with them in Caracas about Dec. 1.

Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Keaffe of Williamsbury road spent last week-end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Reid III, at the Deal Golf and Country club, Deal, N. J.

The occasion was the member-guest golf weekend featuring a two-day golf tournament, finished off with a dinner dance.

Gratches Keaffe, 11-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Keaffe, returned Sunday from a six-week visit with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Martin, and her cousin, Mary Helen, in Scottdale, Ariz.

She arrived at Willow Run airport within one hour of her parents' arrival from New Jersey Sunday so the family could make the trip home together.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Van Norwich of Woodale returned last weekend from a week of complete rest and relaxation at Hidden Valley.

Their son, Howard, returned Monday from four weeks of counseling at Camp Westminster at Higgins lake. Howard spent six summers as a camper at Westminster and has counseled for the past two summers.

Prior to going to Westminster this season, he spent two weeks at Camp McCoy at LaCrosse, Wis., as an army reservist.

Danny Nicholls, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Nicholls of Overhill, returned last week from attending the Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge.

Leaving July 9 and returning last Saturday, Danny was the only scout in Bloomfield Village to attend. He was with nearly 500 scouts from the Detroit area.

Among his strongest impressions were the address given the entire body of around 53,000 scouts by Vice President Nixon on the opening night in the amphitheatre, and the side trips taken by the Detroit contingent to Washington, D.C., Philadelphia and Gettysburg.

In this encampment, larger than any single one of the scouts have ever attempted, there were paved streets and running water.

"Uncle Otto," the grand old man of the scouting world, who is from Detroit and is the one who originally named the organization the Boy Scouts of America, is now 81 years old. A great inspiration to scouts everywhere, he has appeared on the Arthur Godfrey television show. He addressed the entire jamboree and was on hand at the train to see them off.

Seeking to bring home a token of his trip to his kid brother, Bobby, 6, Danny swapped some of his patches for a horned-toad, brought to the jamboree by some of the scouts from Texas.

When his parents met him at the train, Danny greeted them with the horned toad calmly perched on his shoulder. The mother escaped a quiet "faint," she'll never know. The newly acquired member of the Nicholls family has taken up quarters in mama's nasturtium bed where he has already become perfectly adjusted.

Mrs. E. S. Rumeley of Covington recently entertained at a birthday party for her mother, Mrs. Charles Hodges, Jr., of Grosse Pointe.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Fisher of S. Glenbury road and children Theresa, Barbie and Mike just returned from two weeks at Intermediate lake near Hellaire.

The family took a one-day side trip to Mackinac island.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Farrell of Tuckahoe and children Kathy and Jimmy, and Kathy's friend, Sally Annas, of Covington, spent last weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. H. McCormick of Flint at their cottage at Grayling.

They enjoyed fishing in the AuSable and Maumet rivers and caught two fine trout.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Thomas of Hupp cross road spent last week in Niagara, Canada, and then drove around through some of the countryside and finally to London, Ont., where Mrs. Thomas enjoyed shopping in an exceptionally lovely china shop.

They enjoyed fishing in the AuSable and Maumet rivers and caught two fine trout.

Valley Vacationers

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Kelley of Henley avenue have been staying at the picturesque Town and Country hotel in scenic Mission Valley, San Diego, Calif., with their daughter, Irish, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Donald Bowers of Los Angeles, formerly of Birmingham.

Home from Top-In-A-Bee

The Charles Whartons and sons Robert and Ronnie of Sheffield avenue have returned home after spending ten days at Hotel Top-In-A-Bee on Mullet Lake.

Collection

EVERY TWO YEARS, on the even year, Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm and daughter Janet return to Scotland to visit his mother, Mrs. Charlotte Chisholm in Edinburgh. July 19 marked her 85th birthday. She was born in Froickheim, Scotland.

During World War II she kept the Staffordshire dogs wrapped in pillows and under a four-poster bed as they were her prize possessions.

They have always been handed down to oldest daughter to get married. Since Mr. Chisholm's sister chose a career and remained unmarried, his mother gave them to him. He is the first male to fall heir to them.

Woodale, arrived Tuesday for a week's visit. She has never seen the Turunen children and has anticipated centering her visit around making their acquaintance.

heir to them. They will of course go to his daughter, Janet, upon her marriage. She is now seven.

Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm never add a piece to their collection just because they like them and find them a thing of beauty to add to their home.

Consequently when one looks at their possessions, they are found to fit perfectly into the home and blend completely with the personalities of this charming couple.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Coskey of 3731 Darlington road, who moved here recently from Allen Park. They have three children, Douglas, 7, Sally, 4, and Susan 2 months. Coskey is a sales engineer at Tinserrams.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—all the society offer about them.
