Three Young Men Will Exhibit Work July 29 - August 31

Three young men from this area, Kenneth Wynans, Stanley Hench and Tom Frank will exhibit their work at The Little Gallery July 29 to August 31.

Kenneth who works mostly in lacquer on masonry was educated in the art school of Michigan State University. He has exhibited at Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Lansing and Chicago. Kenneth is presently teaching art in the Birmingham schools.

Stanley studied art at the Pittsburgh Art Institute, the American Academy of Art and the Art Institute, both of Chicago. He has exhibited in the art museum of Indianapolis, South Bend, Fort Wayne, Detroit and Chicago. Formerly he taught art in the Birmingham schools and is now at Plymouth.

Tom is the youngest of the three, having graduated from the University of Michigan recently. He has lived in Pontiac and Birmingham except for his years at Ann Arbor. Essentially an abstract colorist, he works with equal facility in oil, water-color or casein.

MRS. PAUL J. VANDERVEEN

Attends Ballgame

Owen Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Davis, 4433 Tarry, Birmingham, a camper at Wentworth Military academy, journeyed to Kansas City recently with the school's summer camp ground and counselors to see a big league ball game.

Southern Honeymooners To Live in Kalamazoo

Judith Ann Holland-Moritz wore a swiss embroidered gown with a chapel train for her marriage to Paul John Vanderveen at two o'clock Saturday. A fingertip veil of illusion and bouquet of white roses completed the bridal ensemble.

The Rev. L. Dobins read the double-ring rites in Christ Church Cranbrook before 300 wedding guests.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Holland-Moritz of Dorchester road, Birmingham. Paul is the son of Mrs. John F. Vanderveen of Kalamazoo and the late Mr. Vanderveen.

ATTENDANTS were gowned in blue accordion pleated crystolite with blue metal headpieces and carried pink carnations and white mums.

Misses E. T. Drier, Jr., was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Karen Clousson, Rosalie Franklin and Gan Hudson.

Flower girls were Susan Gospill and Debra Drier. Edward T. Drier, Jr., was best man. Seating the guests were Charles M. Maties, Morden P. Schurr, John B. Gospill, Rudolph Vogelreuter and Richard G. Moss.

THE BRIDE'S mother wore a pale blue lace sheath and the groom's mother chose teal blue. Both mothers had shaded carnations.

To start her southern wedding trip the new Mrs. Vanderveen donned a pink embroidered sheath dress to which she pinned a white orchid. After Aug. 3 the newweds will make their home in Kalamazoo.
