Guests, Trips and Parties Set Fast Summertime Pace

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Gobecke of 1433 Wrenwood road had as houseguests former friends from Bay City. They were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wylie and children Martin and Cynthia and Dr. and Mrs. Ronald Remington, with children Mary and Peter, who came to pick up their daughter Jill. She had been spending some time as the guest of Janie Gobecke.

Mrs. Gobecke invited a group of friends and neighbors in for an "around the pool" party and all enjoyed a refreshing swim before a barbecue.

Soon after their company departed, Janie left for a month at Camp Maqua on Loon lake where she is busy working on a solo for the camp's water ballet, to be presented soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gobecke then visited a few days with Mrs. Gobecke's sister, Mrs. G. A. Hitchmough, in Potosky where they golfed, swam and visited friends.

A day at the Detroit Yacht club was spent recently by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schulte and Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ross and Mary Lou and Peggy and Mike Fisher on Jim Schulte's new Chris Craft.

While the children enjoyed wading in the pool, the men tried their luck at water skiing.

Mrs. Robert Sims of 1614 Withersbee road entertained her monthly bridge group this past week by serving a colorful and refreshing dish of raspberry and lime sherbet and cake.

Those seated for the two-table bridge were Mrs. William Yecht, Mrs. Ford Banes, Mrs. William Dye, Mrs. Robert Welch, Mrs. Charles Benson, Mrs. James Trew and Mrs. Paul Nelson.

Mrs. Dean H. Hopper of 1554 Graefield road and Mrs. A. B. McWood of Bloomfield Hills were co-hostesses at a bridal shower in Mrs. Hopper's home last Thursday.

Guest of honor was Miss Ann Henderson of Birmingham who will marry David Harper Oct. 16. A lovely floral arrangement of shocking pink gladiolas mixed with pink and white carnations topped with tiny blue butterflies greeted the guests as they arrived with their beautifully wrapped gifts for the bride-to-be.

The guest list included Miss Henderson's mother, Mrs. W. W. Henderson and Mrs. William Henderson, Jr., Mrs. Montieh, Mrs. James Foster, Mrs. James Hopper, Mrs. Hardman and Mrs. Charles

Houghton Is Scene Of July Ceremony

Ann Louise Noblet and Wendell Hartmon Smith, Jr., exchanged wedding vows and rings July 13 in the First Presbyterian church of Houghton. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Lloyd C. Dalquist.

Mr. and Mrs. U. John Noblet of Houghton are the parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Hartmon Smith, Sr., 1704 Haynes, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE wore a princess style chapel train of white pearl de sole silk. Medallions of Venetian lace embossed the sabrina neckline and waist of the voluminous skirt. Her shoulder length alyon veil fell from a lace pill box encircled with sequins and seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white tea roses and stephanotis mingled with ivy.

Catherine Lee Noblet was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Peter Noblet, sister-in-law of the bride, and Nancy Nebel, cousin of the bride. For her flower girl, the bride chose her niece, Deborah Lou Noblet.

THE GROOM was attended by his brother, William P. Smith of Sault Ste. Marie, as best man.

interesting to the out-of-towners and Mrs. Adams did some shopping at Northland center.

A pleasant surprise was a visit from an old friend from Philadelphia, Pa., Dumont Reed, who had time to stay for dinner and talk with Adams about the "good old days" when they all lived in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Bens of 1933 Derby road and children Stephen, 3 years old, and Michael, 9 years old, just returned from a two and one-half week vacation. Going to Mackinac Island, they spent a few days sightseeing, buggy riding and bicycling before visiting with the children's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rainow, in Minneapolis. While there, they did some launch fishing and have nothing but good reports of their success. The boys especially enjoyed an airplane ride in which they surveyed the flood area that is so prominent in that area.

From there, they drove to Aberdeen, So. Dak., where they visited the paternal grandfather, Paul Bens. A family reunion was planned during their stay, enabling them to see relatives they hadn't seen for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carey of 1814 Withersbee road had as their houseguests the past weekend Mr. and Mrs. James Dalshy and their four children, Lynn, Elaine, Julie and Johnnie, who motored here from Louisville, Ohio.

A relaxing weekend was spent with a picnic and swimming at Point Pelee, Ont.

Bachelor days were reminiscenced by eight former Graefield Terrace residents and their wives when Mr. and Mrs. J. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hendricks.

Participating in the potluck supper were Mr. and Mrs. John Schuler, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Suoly, Mr. and Mrs. John Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McPartland, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edgar, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leathers, Mr. and Mrs. William Clougherty, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Reardon and Mr. and Mrs. John Adams.

Completing the evening was dancing and singing, and last but not least, a candle decked birthday cake.

Guests came bearing strange packages that held company with keeping with the birthday celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Clougherty of 1085 Brooklawn road entertained for their son, Torry on his fifth birthday recently.

The party took place at Springdale park where the group enjoyed a picnic. Guests were Jenny Barnes, Sandy Leathers, Greg McPartland, Todd Decker, Johnnie Cox, David Reardon and Terry's sisters, Peggy, Cathy and Patricia.

The children enjoyed roasting marshmallows and playing games.

An evening of bridge was enjoyed this past week at the home of Frank Mansfield of 891 Brooklawn road.

Mrs. Mansfield served dessert preceding the game while the women, all former Graefield Terrace residents, visited together. Those participating were Mrs. William Doerr, Mrs. Donald Miner, Mrs. Richard Strass, Mrs. Lewis Thomas, Mrs. John Saefto, Mrs. Lewis Sevin, Mrs. John Hennessy and Mrs. David Bordinat.

An afternoon at the Detroit zoo was enjoyed recently by some of the Froyton Manor children, namely Tommy Schulte, Mary Lou and Peggy Ross and Bobby, Barbara and Sally Reid, and their mothers.

Aside from the thrilling train trip, the children liked feeding the ducks in the pond and watching the monkeys do their many tricks.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
