

Fun for the Kiddies, too!

More than 60 children squealed and raced from one attraction to another... at the all-day lawn picnic Saturday at the Wing Lake Farms home of the Joseph Juett. The hosts entertained at an employees picnic for 150 guests.

Juett Family Host to 150 At Annual Employees Picnic

WING LAKE FARMS—As the temperature soared to 94 degrees Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Juett of Walnut Lake road hosted the second annual employees picnic of the J. Lee Hackett company of which Juett is executive vice president. Calm and cool describes Mrs. Juett as she went about making her 150 guests comfortable and happy for the all-day affair.

MORE THAN 60 children raced and squealed gayly from one attraction or game to another. In the front yard was a double carousel, complete with music and three ponies to ride. In the back yard was a fish pond, a clown-faced-bean-bag-toss game and competitions such as a candy-kiss hunt, wheel-barrow race, three-legged race and newspaper-foot race.

THE MEN indulged in a little game of skill... throwing raw eggs at each other and a milder form of self-disfiguration... getting peanuts from the bottom of a flour filled bowl with the teeth. Under a colorful circus-tent top on the rear lawn were tables and chairs and in addition, four large tables under colorful beach umbrellas. Along the side of the yard was a gayly striped concession awning under which were counters of food and drinks.

DURING the afternoon guests enjoyed swimming at the Wing Lake Farms beach. Hamburgers and hot dogs were grilled out-doors at 5 o'clock and guests could go on eating for the rest of the evening to their heart's content. Guests came from as far as Kalamazoo and Benton Harbor with the youngest being only six-weeks old.
