Crash Kills 4-Year-Old Redford Boy

SOUTHFIELD—A four-year-old Redford township boy died Monday night after two cars collided at 12 Mile and Southfield roads.

Death Car

A 4-year-old Redford township boy, James L. Churches, was killed early Monday evening when this car, driven by his father, Leonard Churches, 31, collided with another car at the Southfield township intersection of Southfield and Twelve Mile roads.

Argues for Oiling Franklin's Roads

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Richard P. Barnard, attorney for three Franklin property owners ticketed for oiling their roads, presented the following article in behalf of Franklin residents who disagree with road-oiling policies of Road Commissioner J. Robert Mitchell whose views were printed by The Eccentric last week.)

Three File Village Charter Petitions

SOUTHFIELD—Three persons have filed nominating petitions for Westwood Village charter commission, the first in either the village area or City of Southfield to file for the posts.

Seek Information on 'Forgotten' Cemetery

That's what I call it but others refer to it as the second Southfield Township cemetery, or old timers may call it the Old Presbyterian Church cemetery.

Pioneers' Cemetery

Most old Michigan cemeteries still harbor the original pine trees which settlers found when they came to this territory almost 140 years ago, or which sprang up shortly after the cemeteries were dedicated.

Propose Name Change For Westwood Village

WEST BEVERLY—The proposed Westwood Village area may become the Village of Beverly Hills, according to a recent letter by West Beverly Hills Association President Chester F. Guilmet to the association's board of directors.

Will Look For New Pay Plan

SOUTHFIELD—Township board tabled a decision indefinitely on whether to place an additional 1340 acres in the 12-Towns drain area Tuesday night and instructed Supervisor Eugene Swem to investigate other possible means of paying for the project.

Lathrup Okays Hatfield Beauty Shop Appeal

LATHRUP—Last week's session gave Lathrup's zoning board of appeals $500 battling average, with four of five cases getting approval.
