Lathrup Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kingsbury of Lathrup recently returned from a very pleasant and scenic trip to the Canadian Rockies. The trip began by flying to Seattle, then on to Vancouver and the Rockies where they visited Banff and Jasper parks and Lake Louise.

The Kingsburys were particularly attracted by the beautiful scenery and especially the snow capped mountains. At the end of two weeks they flew home by way of Calgary.

Bruce Rankin, of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rankin of E. California, celebrated his 10th birthday by taking a group of his boy friends to the movies and later having ice cream and cake. Going to the movies with Bruce, where they saw "Ulysses" and "Captain Blood," were Eugene Parks, Chuck Oert, John Berner and Craig Coverdill.

Three children were baptized at St. Bede's July 14. They were Anita Baluchnan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stamen Baluchnan, Ida Martin Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Williams, and Andrew Hayward Shaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shaver.

Mrs. John Cleary of San Quentin spent a pleasant two and one-half weeks in Greenview, Conn., visiting her mother, Mrs. William F. Rogers, Jr. Jackie and Maureen flew down with their mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pulte of Halewood recently had out of town guests for the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Meyers of South Bend, Ind., were here with their children Karen and Donald. While here, they attended a ballgame and had a chicken barbecue in the garden.

The weekend before that, Mrs. Pulte's grandparents and uncle were here for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meyers and Wm. G. Meyers were here from South Bend, also.

Miss Jean Ringland of Bungalow drive was one of the many who had weekend plans slightly disrupted by the recent flood in Chicago. After her plane spent some time waiting out the rain in Milwaukee, Jean finally got to Chicago for a reunion with her college roommate.

Lots of activity to report in the J. D. Robinson family. There was a trip to Ladington to a fruit farm during cherry picking time with rides on the tractor carrying bags for young Janet and John.

Another trip took the family to Wadsworth, Ohio, for a few days, and now everyone is intruding in helping 13-year-old Jim get ready for scout camp. Little Jackie goes along on the trips and watches the activity with interest, but at 16 months, she is a little young for tractor rides or camping trips.

Robinson, advancements; Richard Walters and F. J. Zaher, outdoors; C. F. Hoover, membership; John Coup, training; H. A. McLaughlin, equipment; Dr. R. W. Monto, health and safety; Albert Fleming, transportation; A. E. Little, patrol dad organizer; A. M. Cattell fund raising, and Joseph Myzsa publicity.

Keep 'Cool' with Movies of Skiing, Snow-Covered Mts.

LATHRUP—Mr. and Mrs. Ted Garrish of Lathrup avenue hit upon a perfect scheme for hot weather entertainment for their guests last Monday evening.

While Ted Jr. operated the projector, older brother 2nd Lt. Jim Gidley, home on leave, explained some of the beautiful color slides he made of the Rocky mountains and Sun Valley while stationed in Idaho.

SOME of Jim's pictures were made while flying 15,000 to 15,000 feet over snow-covered mountains, while others were taken during the Olympic trout and at the 8,000 foot level ski runs in Sun Valley. Keeping cool and admiring Jim's pictures were Dr. and Mrs. F. T. May, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Debus and Mr. and Mrs. Vince ZateLL.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Fuston of Rainbow Drive, Lathrup? They are the parents of those beautiful little twin girls everyone has been admiring. The girls are 14 months old and a couple of charmers.

They are Jean Elizabeth and Jane Eleanor. The girl's mother is the former Eleanor Owen of Detroit. She attended Michigan State university. Their dad owns Douglas Coal and Supply Co. of Highland Park.

Cranbrook Village Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Scalla of Fall River road had a weekend guests recently Mr. and Mrs. Nicolas Sinkel of Winston-Salem, N. C. Much of the time was spent picnicking. The Sinkel children, Robert and Diane, especially enjoyed this.

Mr. Scalla's mother, Mrs. Patricia Flanagan from Port Austin, is expected any day for a visit with the Scalla family.

Kirchbergs Spend Two Weeks in East

LATHRUP—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kirchberg of Wilshire spent a very active and pleasant two weeks in New York and Cape Cod.

Besides touring the entire Cape, the Kirchbergs visited Bass river and took a boat trip to Nantucket. It was smooth riding on the way up but the return trip was rough and the boat pitched and tossed.

They rented bikes and really got to see the countryside. In New York, the Kirchbergs saw "Most Happy Fella" and the TV program "What's My Line?" They took in several of the current movies, rode to the top of the Empire State building, took a boat ride around Manhattan and went on a guided tour of the United Nations building.

ON THE WAY back home, a stop was made to pick up Kirchberg's son, Chris, who will be staying with them for a while. Chris has been busy since their return, going to baseball games and visiting his grandparents in Rosedale park. Later in the season, brother Bill will come for a visit, too.

Yorks Back Home After UP Trip; Relatives Visit

LATHRUP—Mr. and Mrs. Frank York of Wilshire recently spent several days in the upper peninsula. They first went to Grayling where they stayed at a cottage on Lake Marguerite and where York was able to catch up on one of his favorite sports, trout fishing.

Their visit was cut short due to the cold weather there and the family then went on to Rockland to visit Mrs. York's brother. They also spent some time at Lake of the Clouds and in the Porcupine mountains area.

COMING HOME, the York's two older boys, John and Brian, returned by bus, while Lyman came back with his parents.

After their return, Mrs. York's brother from Rockland, Maurice Hoffman, came to spend a few days here with his wife and family. Hoffman, being very interested in baseball, saw all the Yankee games while here.

THE LADIES shopped and visited many of their relatives that are living here. To climax the week, a home town picnic was held at Palmer park, with many of the relatives from Rockland attending.

Nations building.

ON THE WAY back home, a stop was made to pick up Kirchberg's son, Chris, who will be staying with them for a while. Chris has been busy since their return, going to baseball games and visiting his grandparents in Rosedale park. Later in the season, brother Bill will come for a visit, too.
