Gilbert Lake Social Briefs

MR. AND MRS. Francis Moriarty of Hills drive returned recently from a yacht trip on the Great Lakes. They were on the Harbor Beach Yacht club and went on to Gary Bay in Canada. They were surprised on their return to find the recent storm had blown down several trees directly in front of their garage. They were temporarily without transportation when they couldn't use their cars until the trees were removed.

Three days after their return, the Moriarty's son, Denny, and his roommate, Art Zink, came home for the weekend from Michigan where they were working this summer.

Immediately following their visit, the Moriarty's greeted more visitors. They were Mrs. Moriarty's mother, Mrs. H. E. Klingensmith, her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cooper and daughter, Carol, all of Dayton, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. George Aiken of Laurium court returned recently from a motor trip through the northwest and Canada. Their children, Jim, 14, and Betty, 8, accompanied them. They visited Yellowstone park then went north through Glacier, Banff, Lake Louise and Alberta.

One exciting event happened in Sixteen Falls, S. D., when they were awakened at their motel in the early morning and told to evacuate immediately as the situation was overflowing. They packed in a rush and left on the only route open before the river overflowed. They found the north country very chilly and the snow and cold water brought them home sooner than they had planned.

A group of local couples, who met weekly for dance instruction during the past winter months, gave a progressive party at home to honor their instructors, Mr. and Mrs. George Russell. The party began at the William Barrett's home on Snowhatch circle with swimming and cocktails.

Mr. Howard Schwepens of the pontoon lake entertained the group at dinner, which was followed with dancing at the Honor Finches' on Oakleigh.

Other members of the group were Mr. and Mrs. George Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bay, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Al Badger.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Carlston Best of Lane Lake returned recently from the west coast where they visited for two weeks.

For the past week, the Scotts have enjoyed a visit from their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Hopkins of Baltimore, Grandsons, Scott, 6, and Paul, 4, were the center of attraction.

Mr. and Mrs. George Strawser and their children, David and Ruth Ann, of South Millerville, vacated recently in Muskoka, Can. They spent five days at Cleveland House on Lake Rosseau.

David left today for Camp Nisogone in Ocochee where he will spend the next four weeks. Two of David's friends, with him, are Mr. and Mrs. John Kehrl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kehrl of South Millerville, and Jeff Ralston of Pine Lake.

Ruth Ann, who is 6, is finding summer fun at home. Along with Kathy and Karen Mauck, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Mauck of East Millerville, she is doing nicely with swimming lessons twice a week at Plum Hollow.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Carpenter and Mrs. Carpenter's mother, Mrs. Alice Murdock of Maple road, returned last week from a week in Chicago where they visited relatives.

Reschkes Entertain Illinois Guests

LONE PINE VILLAGE—Recent house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reschke of Ranch Lane were Mrs. Reschke's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith and their daughter Barbara, of Springfield, Ill. The Smiths visited for a week and during their stay at Reschkes entertained for them at a family cookout.

The Reschkes entertained at an outdoor cookout and swimming party last weekend. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gail Markham of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Britton of Ranch Lane.

Chalmsleigh Girl Has 4th Birthday

CHALMSLEIGH—Joanne Anzick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Anzick of Sunningdale, celebrated her fourth birthday Saturday with an outdoor luncheon party.

The young party-goers were intrigued with suckers, balloons and favors which were hung from the trees.

Guests were David and Ginny VanVurst, Kathy Wicklund, Rory Guay, Craig Plankar, Martha and Douglas Scott and Mary Lee Anzick.

Visit Lake Cabin

ORCHARD HILLS—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Brown of Holiday spent recent 10 days at their cottage on Crooked lake near Lake City. Together with their daughter, Sandra, their time was spent mostly fishing and swimming.

Gilbert Lake Women Sweep Golf Prizes

GILBERT LAKE—It might have looked like a conspiracy, but it was really just good golfing and coincidence when three Gilbert Lake women won all the prizes on "All Watrous day" recently at Oakland Hills Country club. Friday is always ladies' day at the club, but this one was special. A full day of fun was planned by "All Watrous, pro at the club, who recently won the world's Senior crown at the International Senior Golf championships in Glasgow, Scotland.

HE DONATED three prizes as a gesture of appreciation to club members. As each lady teed off, she was given a new golfball of her choice.

Mrs. F. D. Knoblock of Shadow lane won first prize, a set of Spalding Spalding woods for a score of 81 net. For her low score, Mrs. Knoblock also won a pin, donated by the ladies' day committee, which she can wear for a month.

SECOND PRIZE, a set of Spalding matched irons, was won by Mrs. Al Shantz of Shadow lane for a low net of 82. In addition, a pink golfbag was won by Mrs. Jack Mayes of Lane lake.

Big Dolphin Prize Of Florida Trip

LONE PINE VILLAGE—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Thompson of Keithdale returned last week from Miami Beach, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Wolf of Walnut Lake.

The Thompsons and the Wolfs first spent several days in New York where they saw the top show before going on to Miami Beach for some deep sea fishing.

It was Mrs. Thompson's first time fishing with light reel and tackle she landed a prize dolphin.

SHE UNDERSTANDS now why others are so anxious to relate their fish stories as she finds herself doing the same thing. The dolphin is being mounted to furnish proof for the fish story.

Couple Leaves on Great Lakes Cruise

CHALMSLEIGH—Mr. and Mrs. Homer Finch of Oakleigh left yesterday on a pleasure cruise to Duluth, Minn. They boarded a freighter with three Birmingham couples and will spend five days on the Great Lakes.

With them on the cruise are Mr. and Mrs. Herb Woolson, Mr. and Mrs. Phil French and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Landgren, all members of a potluck group which meets monthly during the winter months.
