Traffic Violators Get Heavy Fines In Municipal Court

Two traffic violators received heavy fines last Wednesday when they appeared before Judge John J. Gaffin in Birmingham municipal court. Shirley Jay Hall, 46, of 366 Henrietta, Birmingham, pleaded guilty to charges of reckless driving, and was fined $40 and $5 costs. Isabelle Lindine, 50, of Ft. Myers, Fla., pleaded guilty to charges of driving under the influence of liquor. She was fined $65 and $10 costs, and Judge Gaffin ordered her Florida driver's license turned over to authorities in Lansing.

Youth Is Nation's 1st in New Award

Making plans to enter Culver military academy on a four-year scholarship is Larry Stolberg, 15, of 16 Pierce, Birmingham. Larry was recently named the nation's first recipient of the newly founded Edith Oliver Rea memorial scholarship. Previously a student at Baruch junior high school, he will enter Culver as a sophomore, for a three- or four-year course, depending on the number of elects.

Troy B. E. Asks For 2 1/2 Mill Voted Increase July 22

TROY-Troy board of education is asking residents there to approve a 2 1/2 mill levy July 22 to cover operating expenses. Troy Citizens Planning committee has announced passage of the tax, according to Chairman Jack B. Muir. The committee worked for a year on a door-to-door campaign to explain need for the tax and to answer questions.

Free-Thinking Woman Writer Creates Comedy

"Janus", Carolyn Green's comedy about a husband and wife writing team, is Will-O-Way Playwright. The play, which is the current summer stock season. The most interesting angle of the play is that the general manager and laborators are not each other's husband and wife. When the free-thinking woman writer returns to his wife's apartment unexpectedly, the dramatic comedy is set and the comedy gets under way. A minor skirmish with an Internal Revenue Bureau inspector scarcely ruffles the mood of the domestic opuff, but the "revenge" does his stunts, and paving the way for a happy ending for the trio.
