

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Honeymoon in Bermuda

Central Methodist in Traverse City was the scene Saturday afternoon of the wedding of Sonja Evelyn Garthe and David A. Campbell. The Rev. Donn P. Doten performed the 4:30 o'clock ceremony.

Sonja is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul O. Garthe of Traverse City and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross S. Campbell of Franklin road, Franklin village.

THE BRIDE chose a gown fashioned of Italian silk with applique alencon lace at neckline of bodice and hipline. A chapel length train fell from bouffant back puffs. Matching headpiece with tiny pearls secured her veil of silk illusion. To complete the bridal picture, Sonja carried a bouquet of white stephanotis with a white orchid and ivy.

Mrs. William H. McCart of Flint was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a white nylon dotted Swiss with an Italian neckline and flowing back panels. Her headpiece was mint green with a tiny face veil. She carried white daisies.

BRIDESMAIDS were Joan Warden of Wayne, Mich., Charlene Pelton of Ohio, Gail Terhelsen of Lansing, Karin Schubert and Patricia Linder of Traverse City. They wore gowns identical to the matron of honor's.

Kerry McCart, niece of the bride, was the bride's flower girl. She wore a dress the same material as the attendants with puff sleeves and green sash. She carried a basket of daisies.

Ross Stevenson Campbell, Jr. stood as best man. Ushers were Henry Moore and William Stevenson of Birmingham, William Hartson of Wisc., William McCart of Flint, and Garrard Howard of New York.

THE BRIDE'S MOTHER selected a pink lace dress and hat with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Campbell chose a white lace dress with blue accessories.

Sonja chose a navy silk suit for her going away costume to Bermuda, New York City, and Cleveland, they will fly to the different places.

MRS. DAVID W. CURRY

Mr. and Mrs. Curry Honeymooning in East

Wearing a wedding gown created of white nylon embroidered organdy, Janice Marie Aldred walked down the aisle of United Presbyterian Church in Detroit Saturday evening to become the bride of David William Curry.

Styled with a portrait neckline, fitted bodice and a bouffant floor length skirt with layers of nylon organdy flowing into a chapel train, the gown was complemented with a bouquet of white orchids, stephanotis and ivy. Seed pearls trimmed the matching cap securing her veil.

Identical to the matron of honor's, except they were in pastel yellow.

NORVAL CURRY, brother of the groom, stood as best man. Ushers were Brock Dew and Kenneth Aldred.

Mrs. Aldred chose a lace over pink satin dress with pink accessories and the groom's mother wore a blue silk with matching accessories. Both mothers wore orchids.

Janice chose a brown suit dress with beige accessories to start her honeymoon trip to Cape Cod. They will make their home in Huntsville, Ala.

MRS. ELIZABETH Aldred, sister-in-law of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a lavender waist length organdy gown featuring a fitted bodice with a boat neckline and a bouffant skirt over tulle and taffeta. A basket of painted daisies in lavender, white and yellow completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Beatrice Aldred, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Marilyn Briggs, sister of the groom, served as bridesmaids. Their gowns were
