

Honeymooning in Upper Michigan

MRS. EDWARD M. BALLANTYNE

Gail Ann Lape, radiant in a frosty white silk mousseline-de-soie gown, exchanged vows with Edward Merrill Ballantyne at one o'clock Saturday, in Holy Name church.

The Right Reverend Monsignor Eugene Paddock officiated at the ceremony witnessed by more than 225 guests.

Gail is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Lape, Broadway boulevard, Bloomfield Village. Edward, who has recently been living in Buffalo, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Ballantyne, of Pentwater, Michigan.

RE-EMBROIDERED Alencon lace veiled low across the front and back of the bride's flared wedding gown, and her short silk illusion veil was caught to a crown of matching lace. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Bridesmaids wore identical waist length frocks of white silk chiffon over blue taffeta accented by short sleeves bound in ice blue satin, and ice blue satin cummerbunds. Their hair was tiny pictures of ice blue illusion, bound in the same blue satin, set with pearls. They carried bouquets of pink carnations and roses.

THE BRIDE'S sister, Jan Lape, was maid-of-honor, and carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations and roses.

Bridesmaids were Bonnie Claire McIntosh, Elizabeth Cliff, Constance Butcher, all of Detroit, and Mrs. John J. Dyer, Jr., of Cleveland. Kristy Lape, the four-year-old sister of the bride, was her flower-girl.

The groom's best man was John J. Dyer, Jr., of Cleveland, and the ushers were Robert Fell, Hyatt Ballantyne, James Monteth and Martin McGinnis.

MRS. LAPE wore a gown of powder blue and white with matching hat and shoes and the groom's mother wore dusty pink with matching accessories.

A reception at the Red Run Golf Club followed the double-ring services, and the bride and groom left immediately on their wedding trip to Upper Michigan. Upon their return they will live in Detroit.

DAC Beavers Plans Annual Outing July 9

Detroit Athletic Club's Beavers swimming group has plans all set for its annual stag outing at the Old Club at St. Clair Falls. The outing is slated for next Tuesday, July 9, with some 200 expected to attend as they have at previous fiestas.

Clyde P. Craine, Jr. of Brookwood road, Birmingham, Beavers president, is to head the party which will assemble at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club for the trip by cruiser yachts to the Old Club destination. Mr. Craine, recently elected for the 1957-58 season, will be on hand early to welcome the party-goers.

Dr. Sigurd Becker of Grosse Pointe is chairman, as he's been annually since he organized the first Beavers' Old Club outing nearly 20 years ago.

EDWARD J. SCHOENHERR and Arthur D. Cronin, Jr. are co-chairmen lining up members' boats for the excursion.

As in other years, the DAC bowlers have been invited, too. Polished to a shining splendor is the ancient Milkcan Trophy for the baseball game between Beavers' and bowlers' teams, captained respectively by John R. Donahue and Clyde Mantou.

Chief aide on the events will be Clarence E. Pinkston.

The program: 9 o'clock breakfast at GPYC for those who wish; cruisers' departure at 10; a doubles tennis tournament on arrival at Old Club; luncheon; golf pitching and horseshoe pitching contests, shuffleboard, and the 3 p.m. ballgame—and swimming.

Finale is the hearty 6:30 dinner, then the DACers will board the cruisers for the return to Grosse Pointe Yacht Club docks.
