Detroit. Mr. Yates is assistant resident manager of James Talcott, Inc. The family is affiliated with the Holy Name church. At present the Yates are busy setting their house in order and getting their landscaping done.

MRS. KARL S. BURNSIDE

Heirloom Mantilla
Accents Bridal Attire

A mantilla of heirloom rosepointe lace was worn by Helen Hutchinson for her marriage to Karl S. Burnside at 5 o'clock Friday in St. Dunstan chapel of Christ church Cranbrook. The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt read the rites before 125 wedding guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Katharine Shields Hutchinson of Johannesburg, South Africa, and Samuel S. Steinhauser of Honolulu, Hawaii. Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Burnside, Karl's home is at 620 Lakeview, Birmingham.

HELEN'S gown was fashioned on princess lines of gardenia silk taffeta with a deep rounded neckline and front panels of heirloom duchess lace. Her bridal bouquet was of amazon lilies, white roses and English ivy.

Mrs. Katherine Hutchinson Van Ingen of Miami, Fla., sister of the groom, and Mrs. Harter Whiting Williams.

TERENCE G. Jackson, Jr., of Annapolis, Md., was his brother-in-law's best man. Seating the guests were John C. Hartuff, Richard L. Alberts and Charles F. Michalski.

An outdoor reception followed the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harter Whiting Williams, 1283 Dorchester, where the bride made her home in Birmingham.

After a honeymoon to Bermuda the couple will reside at 620 Lakeview, Birmingham.

OUT of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Steinhauser of Honolulu, A. N. Hutchinson, Jr., brother of the bride, Meredith Steinhauser of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis W. Shields of Fenton, uncle of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Terence G. Jackson, Sr., of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Erastine Jones of Charleston, W. Va.

Still others coming from Ohio include Mr. and Mrs. Whiting Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. Thomas Stanley and sons, William, Jr., and Steven; Miss Elizabeth Truxell, Mrs. Helen Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Shields and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Coon.

Bloomfield Village
Girls Fly to West Coast,
Visit Grandfather in LA

Peggy Backstrom, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Backstrom of Glenngary road, and her cousin, Adah Mary Connor, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Connor of Lincoln road, Grosse Pointe, flew to Los Angeles, Cal., June 30 to visit their grandfather, J. C. Wilkie, formerly of Detroit.

Their grandfather's home in Sherman Oaks is close to those of Liberae and George Gobel. The girls have been trying to figure out a way to get a glimpse of the piano-shaped swimming pool on Liberae's grounds, but so far have not succeeded. Mrs. Backstrom is hopeful that they don't suddenly discover any latent hedge-trimming techniques or anything drastic like that.

While there, they will tour the Fox studios, see Disneyland and visit Yosemite and San Francisco. They will return Aug. 20.

Patricia Beaverie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Beaverie of Glenngary road, granted this month from St. Mary's college, Notre Dame, Ind. She will teach next year in Detroit.

The Beaverie's daughters, Beverly, 16, and Peggy, 15, are visiting relatives near Traverse City for the summer.

Betty D. Miller
Married June 22

Betty Doris Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Miller of Detroit, was married to James Redington Bay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Bay of Bloomfield Hills, June 22 at the Mt. Hope Methodist church.

The afternoon ceremony was followed by a reception at the Stockholm.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Gerald O'Brien and George H. Bay was best man for his brother, Mr. O'Brien seated the guests.

After a honeymoon in Canada and the East, the couple will make their home in Detroit.

Nosegay . . .
by Fostoria

As its name suggests, Nosegay is a lighthearted floral pattern, as delightfully feminine as a bride's bouquet. It is a polished cutting on graceful handblown stemware. It was designed to complement floral patterns in china, but you'll find it goes equally well with many plain and geometric designs. Come see it in our open-stock Fostoria collection.
