

Graefield-Derby

Joyce Ward MI 7-0097
Joan Dittler MI 6-4387

St. Jane de Chantal Guild Sets Plans for New Season

The St. Jane de Chantal guild of Holy Name church held its monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. James Bower of 1679 Witherbee road Monday evening.

An informal business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Charles Penninger to discuss plans for the coming year and for the women to show items they have sewed and knitted for a coming church affair to be held in November.

Mrs. Harry Barnes and Mrs. Hugu Suofy, co-hostesses for the affair, helped Mrs. Bower serve the dessert and pour the coffee after the meeting while the women chatted about summer plans.

A busy and enjoyable week in Montreal, Canada was taken recently by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mansfield of 891 Brooklawn road, Troyton Manor.

Mansfield's days were kept busy at the convention for American Electrolators society where he represented Wagner Brothers of Detroit, while Mrs. Mansfield attended various affairs and luncheons planned for the women. She also took advantage of her trip to sightsee around the city and do some shopping.

Left at home were son Robbie, 8 years old, and pet Tinker, house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Ross of 901 Brooklawn road, Douglas and Ginger Ross especially enjoyed the company.

Celebrating son Eric's first birthday, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hendrickson of 1880 Brooklawn court, Troyton Manor, entertained on Sunday at a buffet dinner Sunday.

Guests included Eric's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Henderson, his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Florence Warnick, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Neilson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Beck, Mrs. Gerry Shults and Mrs. Sally Finney.

A decorative birthday cake topped with one candle and ice cream was served for dessert.

The Graefield Terrace has added a new member to its group in the name of Kimberly Jean Edger born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Edger of 1662 Graefield road June 25, at William Beaumont hospital in Royal Oak. Kimberly weighed in at 7 pounds 12 ounces.

To welcome the new baby home are her 4 1/2-year-old sister Judith Patricia and Mrs. Edger's mother, Mrs. J. R. Piper, from Pittsburgh, Pa.

A monthly dinner and bridge party was held recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Todor of 2215 Derby road. Mrs. Todor supplied the main courses, while the others supplied the salad and dessert. Included in the enjoyment get-together were other Derby road neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Edward Huebner, Mr. and Mrs. George Gallatoni and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sawdy of 1581 Witherbee road, with sons Eric and Michael, motored recently to Mr. and Mrs. Sawdy's home town of Wilmington, Del.

While there they were house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitney and enjoyed visiting with old friends. Sawdy's main purpose for the trip was to conduct business.

The Graefield Terrace bid farewell recently to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bickner who resided with their sons, Harold, Jr., and Robert, at 1836 Graefield road.

Their present address is 385 Wembley drive in Birmingham and thus Mrs. Bickner is able to continue her presidency of the Holy Name Altar society and many other worthy activities.

Mrs. Philip Reid, co-leader of gift scout troop No. 787, held a last meeting and get-together of the girls in her home at 1524 Witherbee road, Troyton Manor, last week.

A trip to Painesville, Ohio was taken recently by Mr. and Mrs. William Mara, Jr., of 1527 Witherbee road and children Kelly and Johnny.

The purpose for the journey was to have Jimmie Susan Coates with his cousins Greg, Michael and Todd. They stayed with Mrs. Mara's sister, Mrs. Leon B. Keener. Before returning to Michigan, they all took advantage of one of the nice sunny days to have a picnic and swim at Mentor, Ohio, on Lake Erie.

A stop was also made in Toledo to see Mrs. Mara's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kurtz.

Wedding Solemnized Saturday Morning

EAST BEVERLY — Marilyn Hall and Joseph M. Weber were united in marriage Saturday morning by the Rev. Allan P. Kosack. Scene of the ceremony was Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hall of Beverly road, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Weber of Cleveland, Ohio.

FOR HER wedding day, Marilyn chose a gown fashioned of dupioni silk and lace, featuring a sabbra neckline, long sleeves and

THE MOTHER of the bride pinned an orchid to her yellow chiffon lace dress. Her accessories were white. Mrs. Weber selected a beige silk dress for her son's wedding. It was complemented by matching accessories, and a white orchid.

After a breakfast at Devon Gables, the bride and groom left for a honeymoon to Northern Canada. Marilyn's going away costume was an orchid dress with matching duster and white accessories.

They will make their home in Osoqua, Canada, where Joseph is stationed at Wurtsmith air force base.

Raymond Weber stood as best man and Jerry Perko and Jerry Gray were ushers. Mrs. Weber served as junior usher.

Attendants were gowned alike in white, chiffon waist length gowns with light blue cowl necklines.

James Hogan of McDonald, Pa., was best man. Ushers were David Hogan of McDonald, Pa., Robert Aischbach of Dayton, Ohio, John Dunn of Royal Oak, Walter Albert of Lincoln Park and Raymond Huckestein of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mrs. Dunn selected a light blue organza dress with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. The mother of the groom chose a beige chiffon with beige and purple accessories.

After a breakfast at Rotunda Inn, the bride and groom left for a honeymoon to the Pocono mountains. Joan's going away costume was a navy suit dress with white accessories. They will make their home in Oak Park.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

Presbyterian Church Is Scene of Wedding

First Presbyterian Church in Pontiac was the scene Friday evening of the wedding of Joan Lucile Howlett and Richard Barnes Jones. The Rev. William H. Marbach performed the 8 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 250 guests.

Parents of the newlywed are Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Howlett of Pontiac, and Mr. John F. Jones of Birmingham and Mrs. Helen B. Jones of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

THE BRIDE chose a princess style taffeta dress featuring round neckline with inserted bands of hand-corded alencon lace studied with pearls. A fitted cap of taffeta applied with matching lace and pearls secured her two tier silk illusion fingertip veil. She carried album lilies and stephanotis.

Mary Christian of Flint was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Barbara Parker and Patsy Hoyer of Bloomfield Hills, and Eleanor Johnson of Gross Pointe.

Attendants were gowned alike in sea foam green silk organza over matching taffeta featuring an empire bodice of chantilly lace forming a square neckline. Their flowers were astroemeris and ivy with matching headbands.

Another "first" in the Southern Oakland Girl Scout trip camping program is a mountain climbing trip in the Porcupine mountains July 2 through July 10, with Mrs. Russell Haine of Berkeley and Mrs. H. A. Sanders of Royal Oak as chaperones.

The group of ten girls and their leaders will be back-packing their own equipment and staying overnight in shelters maintained by the Michigan department of conservation.

Barbara Monroe, Joan Troutman, Margaret Roberts, Judy Sterling, Sylvia Longyear, Natalie Gilling and Pringle Anders are Birmingham Senior Girl Scouts who will be among the hikers. Mrs. Haine is a native of the Porcupine area and her familiarity with the area guarantees all an interesting experience.

After a reception at the Orchard Lake country club following the ceremony, the newlyweds left immediately for their new home in Costa Beach, Fla. Joan wore a beige linen suit with brown and turquoise accessories for traveling.

James L. Howlett of Pontiac served as best man. Guests were ushered by Charles Cunningham of Bloomfield Hills, Carl Luckenbach, David Hubbard and James Taylor of Birmingham.

Mrs. Howlett selected a champagne silk chiffon dress with a chantilly lace bodice and brown accessories. The mother of the groom chose a mauve chantilly fitted bodice falling into a bouffant skirt. The short scalloped sleeves were complemented by eyelid Swiss organza gauntlets. Her finger tip length veil, an original rose point lace creation which was made in Brussels and brought back by the bride from a recent European trip, was fastened to a crown of seed pearls and boxalls sequins.

She carried her paternal grandmother's handkerchief and her Eastern Star Bible decorated with imported lilies-of-the-valley streamers tied with lover's knots and centered with feather white carnations.

MRS. LAWRENCE Lowe, of West Virginia, matron of honor for her cousin, was gowned in a saxon dotted Swiss dress of white over maize taffeta which featured an oval neckline and short sleeves trimmed with contrasting taffeta. She carried a cascade bouquet of orchid daisies and wore a headdress of pearl orchid daisies.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. William Hawk of Chagrin Falls, Ohio, Mrs. Roy Seltz of Berea, Ohio, and Mrs. Stephen Volkoff of Sylvan Lake, were gowned in orchid dresses similar to the matron of honor. They carried yellow daisies.

Linda Hutchinson, niece of the groom, was the flower girl.

BEST MAN was James Hutchinson, the groom's brother. Ushers were Edwin Bailey, Carl Jenkins and Edward Hovey.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

MRS. CHARLES M. HOGAN, JR.

Hogan-Dunn Wedding Saturday at Holy Name

Joan Eva Dunn and Charles Michael Hogan, Jr. were united in marriage Saturday morning by the Rev. Charles Connors, uncle of the groom, of Connecticut, in the presence of 300 guests. Scene of the ceremony was Holy Name church.

Joan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Dunn of North Glenhurst drive, Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Hogan of McDonald, Pa., are parents of the groom.

Mrs. Robert Aischbach of Dayton, Ohio, was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Louise Lasher of Grand Rapids, Mary Lou Doherty of Medford, Mass., and Mrs. John Dunn of Royal Oak.

Attendants were gowned alike in white, chiffon waist length gowns with light blue cowl necklines.

James Hogan of McDonald, Pa., was best man. Ushers were David Hogan of McDonald, Pa., Robert Aischbach of Dayton, Ohio, John Dunn of Royal Oak, Walter Albert of Lincoln Park and Raymond Huckestein of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mrs. Dunn selected a light blue organza dress with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. The mother of the groom chose a beige chiffon with beige and purple accessories.

After a breakfast at Rotunda Inn, the bride and groom left for a honeymoon to the Pocono mountains. Joan's going away costume was a navy suit dress with white accessories. They will make their home in Oak Park.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

MRS. RICHARD BARNES JONES

Wears Veil Made in Brussels

A double ring ceremony performed June 29 in the First Methodist church, Crestline, Ohio, united in marriage Vera Enid Grim and Richard Reynolds Hutchinson.

The bride, the daughter of Mrs. Elmer Frank Grim, of Crestline, and the late Mr. Grim, recently taught English and Latin at Bloomfield Hills high school. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hutchinson, of Hart, Mich.

GIVEN in marriage by her brother, Burrell, the bride wore a floor length gown of eyelid imported Swiss organza with a V-neckline and a fitted bodice falling into a bouffant skirt. The short scalloped sleeves were complemented by eyelid Swiss organza gauntlets. Her finger tip length veil, an original rose point lace creation which was made in Brussels and brought back by the bride from a recent European trip, was fastened to a crown of seed pearls and boxalls sequins.

She carried her paternal grandmother's handkerchief and her Eastern Star Bible decorated with imported lilies-of-the-valley streamers tied with lover's knots and centered with feather white carnations.

MRS. LAWRENCE Lowe, of West Virginia, matron of honor for her cousin, was gowned in a saxon dotted Swiss dress of white over maize taffeta which featured an oval neckline and short sleeves trimmed with contrasting taffeta. She carried a cascade bouquet of orchid daisies and wore a headdress of pearl orchid daisies.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. William Hawk of Chagrin Falls, Ohio, Mrs. Roy Seltz of Berea, Ohio, and Mrs. Stephen Volkoff of Sylvan Lake, were gowned in orchid dresses similar to the matron of honor. They carried yellow daisies.

Linda Hutchinson, niece of the groom, was the flower girl.

BEST MAN was James Hutchinson, the groom's brother. Ushers were Edwin Bailey, Carl Jenkins and Edward Hovey.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

Engagement Announced

The engagement of Judith Jane Blow to Donald Dixon was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Blow of Dorchester road, Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Dixon of Toledo, Ohio, are parents of the groom, who is a graduate of Notre Dame. He recently completed two years in the Army. Judy is employed by the General Electric Supply company.

The couple plan an early fall wedding.

After a breakfast at Rotunda Inn, the bride and groom left for a honeymoon to the Pocono mountains. Joan's going away costume was a navy suit dress with white accessories. They will make their home in Oak Park.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

Engagement Announced

The engagement of Nancy Ellen Rudisill to Paul T. Radisill of South Bates, Birmingham, announced the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Ellen, to Dennis Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett C. Edwards of Nottingham, Pa.

No date is set for the wedding.

After a breakfast at Rotunda Inn, the bride and groom left for a honeymoon to the Pocono mountains. Joan's going away costume was a navy suit dress with white accessories. They will make their home in Oak Park.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

Engagement Announced

The engagement of Judith Jane Blow to Donald Dixon was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Blow of Dorchester road, Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Dixon of Toledo, Ohio, are parents of the groom, who is a graduate of Notre Dame. He recently completed two years in the Army. Judy is employed by the General Electric Supply company.

The couple plan an early fall wedding.

After a breakfast at Rotunda Inn, the bride and groom left for a honeymoon to the Pocono mountains. Joan's going away costume was a navy suit dress with white accessories. They will make their home in Oak Park.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

Engagement Announced

The engagement of Judith Jane Blow to Donald Dixon was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Blow of Dorchester road, Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Dixon of Toledo, Ohio, are parents of the groom, who is a graduate of Notre Dame. He recently completed two years in the Army. Judy is employed by the General Electric Supply company.

The couple plan an early fall wedding.

After a breakfast at Rotunda Inn, the bride and groom left for a honeymoon to the Pocono mountains. Joan's going away costume was a navy suit dress with white accessories. They will make their home in Oak Park.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.

After a reception in the church parlors, the bride changed into a polished cotton dress of aqua and grey completed with an aqua linen coat to begin her wedding trip through the West. The couple plan to make their home in California.