

MRS. CHARLES DUDLEY WEIR

The Charles D. Weirs Motor to New Orleans

The marriage of Jean Elizabeth Webster to Charles Dudley Weir was solemnized at 3 p.m. Saturday in North Congregational church, Southfield Township, with the Rev. Ralph H. Read officiating.

The double-ring ceremony took stock and white and blue carnage at the altar decorated with lions. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dudley Weir.

Mrs. George Walker Webster, 2111 Hampton avenue, Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Reeves Weir, 383 Bryn Mawr, Birmingham, are parents of the bride.

MISS Webster's gown was of white embroidered eyelet tulle over white peau de soie. A wide ice blue satin cummerbund marked a high empire line in front. In back the wide streamer of the large bouffant fold formed a panel to make the yard-long train. The white crystal headress suggested the brim of a small bonnet holding the shoulder-length white tulle bouquet in place. The white bridal bouquet was a cascade of stephanotis and white orchids.

MATRON of honor was Mrs. Robert Becker of Grand Rapids. Bridesmaids included Peggy Williamson of Angola, Ind., Marlene Heinzelman and Sally Kleinbecker both of Grand Rapids, and Judy Le Messurier, of Birmingham.

The bride's twin sister Mrs. David L. Higgins of Palm Beach, Fla., and Mrs. James Kelly Watkins, of Ann Arbor, were named honorary bridesmaids.

BRIDESMAIDS' dresses were fashioned of white organza embroidered with white flowers over white peau de soie. They had flared skirts, cap sleeves and squared scallop trim at the neckline. Their medieval crowns were ice blue with small stand-out veils. They carried baskets of blue and white daisies.

Douglas Colwell of Birmingham was best man. Ushers were Donald Weir, brother of the bridegroom, David Hersey, Robert Thalacker, Glenn Carlson, Robert Appleford, all of Birmingham, John Wylie of Kalamazoo, Robert Becker of Grand Rapids and L. David L. Higgins of Palm Beach.

THE BRIDE'S mother wore a sheath of beige embroidered organza over cocoa tulle with a back panel of plain beige organza. Her accessories were in blending shades. Mrs. Weir chose powder blue organza with a chantilly lace bodice, flared skirt and three-quarter length sleeves. Her accessories matched her dress.

A reception for 350 guests at Oakland Hills Country club immediately followed the ceremony. The bride and groom left for a motor trip to New Orleans and Palm Beach.

MRS. ROGER K. LINDLAND

Lindland-Stretlien Nuptials Solemnized

Doris Patricia Stretlien and Roger Kyle Lindland exchanged wedding vows and rings Saturday evening in St. Olaf Evangelical Lutheran Church in Detroit. The Rev. Walter Scarvie performed the 7:30 o'clock rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmar Stretlien of Lee Baker drive, Southfield township. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lindland of Detroit.

DORES was gowned in a white Swiss organza over ice blue tulle featuring a sabrina neckline with the bodice covered with alencon lace appliques. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion fell from a beaded crown. A bouquet of white mums and ivy completed the bridal picture.

Mrs. Robert D. Kirk was her sister's matron of honor. Mildred Lalic and Donna Barwick were bridesmaids and Kristine Rose was the flower girl.

ATTENDANTS' gowns were white eyelet tulle street length dresses with short sleeves and sabrina necklines. They carried bouquets of blue bachelor buttons with headpieces of the same flowers. A white organza dress with a bouquet of blue bachelor buttons was worn by the flower girl.

Lloyd Lindland was his brother's best man. Robert D. Kirk and C. Malcolm Rose were ushers. Mrs. Stretlien selected a gray silk shantung dress with pink accessories for her daughter's wedding day. The groom's mother wore a lavender dress with white accessories.

Immediately following the reception at the Birmingham Community House, the newlyweds left for their honeymoon to Mackinac Island.

The young couple will live in Birmingham.
