"A Well Fitted Garment is Our Trademark"

Large Crowd Hears 1200 School Vocalists

There was standing room only for late arrivals when 1200 students in Birmingham school glee clubs and choirs assembled for an all-city choral festival last Wednesday night at Birmingham high school gym. Over 700 fifth and sixth grade glee club members filled bleachers opposite the audience. At left are junior high school choirs. Senior high school choir is at center. The 1200 young voices joined in "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" to climax the program. School music supervisor Arnold W. Berndt handled over-all direction of the well-executed program.

BHS Junior Class Goes to Bob-lo

The junior class outing previously scheduled for last Friday for Metropolitan beach was cancelled because of difficulty in arranging transportation. Instead, the class outing was planned for yesterday as a cruise to Bob-lo.

On planning committee for the outing were H. Ross Scrimgeour, adviser, and class officers Bob Es-son, president; Carol Bain, vice president; Julie Hoover, secretary; and Pete Brind, treasurer.

5 BHS Students To Tour Europe With Hubbard

A European trip becomes a reality to five Birmingham students leaving for Europe this summer with E. A. Hubbard, director of the tour.
Tom McDaniel, Susan Hindle, Fred Finkenauer, Fred Heakley, and Janet Ludwig are the fortunate Birmingham students. Also going are Mr. Hubbard's daughter, Pat, a graduate nurse at Northville; Janet Ludwig's cousin from Redford; Fred Bleakley's older sister, a student at the University of Michigan, and Mrs. A. I. N-Knorr.

The party will leave from Mon-teral June 29 on the steamship "Seven Seas." The eight weeks' tour itinerary includes visits to seven countries.
