

Quota Club Marks Second Birthday

Members of Quota club of Oakland county, who celebrated their group's second anniversary at a birthday dinner last night, have been working diligently on the club's latest project, raising funds for the proposed Girls' Ranch. Quota was one of many service and women's clubs represented at a kick-off dinner last week at Boys' Ranch, where progress reports were given and ideas discussed for the Girls' Ranch project.

SPEAKER at the birthday dinner yesterday, was Mrs. W. Louis Boyington of Detroit. Mrs. Anthony Duchesne and Mrs. J. Kathryn Shields were co-chairmen of the event.

An open book shaped cake centered the table. Blue tapers were tied with silver ribbon and secured in Q-shaped candleholders.

Mary Ellen Welch Wed Saturday at Holy Name

Mary Ellen Welch and Kenneth James Tomezak were united in marriage Saturday morning by Rt. Rev. Magr. Eugene E. Paddock, in the presence of their immediate families. Scene of the ceremony was Holy Name church.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Welch of Suffered road, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley A. Tomezak of Roseville.

FOR HER wedding day, Mary chose a sheath dress fashioned of dusty rose alenon lace, designed with shortleaves, square neckline and bouffant silk net overskirt. Her matching veil cascaded from a rose colored lily-of-the-valley pillbox hat. Completing her ensemble was a bouquet of stephanotis, centered with a white orchid, and accented by trailing ivy.

Mrs. Paul Brink of Detroit wore a ballerina length dress of ice blue shantung for her duties as matron of honor. Her headpiece was in a matching hue and she carried an arrangement of yellow roses and lily.

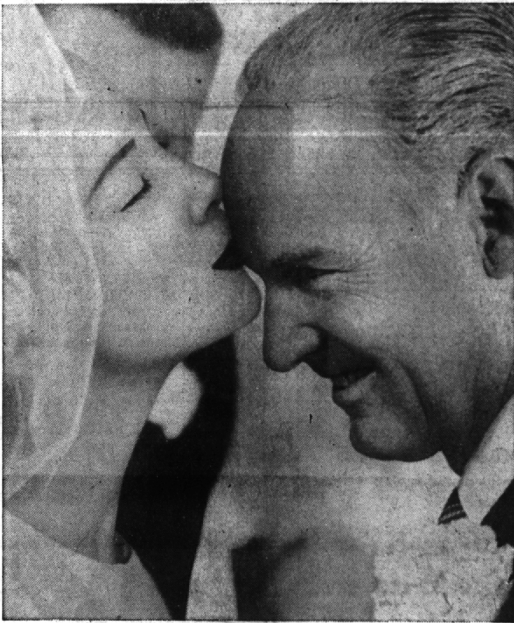

Thomas Tomezak of Lakewood, Ohio, was best man, and ushers were Harold A. Welch, Jr., of Birmingham, and Gerald Tomezak of Madison Heights.

MRS. WELCH selected an ice blue linen sheath dress for her daughter's wedding. It was complemented by matching accessories.

lace jacket and a corsage of pink orchids.

After a breakfast at Rotunda Inn, the bride and groom left for a honeymoon in northern Michigan and Mackinac Island. Mary's going away costume was a brown and beige checked suit with brown accessories.

They will make their home in Detroit.
