TV Personality Makes Appearance At Quarton Tea

Girls finishing their sixth grade at Quarton school were honored at a mother-daughter tea last week by the school's Parent-Teacher Association. Mrs. Thomas King of 503 Shirley, Birmingham, opened her home for the event.

Among the 140 guests present were the girls' teachers, Mrs. Alice McHugh, Mrs. Carolyn Pacheco, Cecilia Jelinek and Mrs. Phyllis Palmer; counsellors from Barnum and Dewey junior high schools, Meriel Brusie and Mrs. Geraldine Rue; and Quarton's principal, Grant Barber, and Mrs. Harbot.

One of the highlights of the afternoon for the girls was the appearance of Mary Morgan, special features editor of CKLW Radio and TV.

MISS MORGAN, 1955 winner of the McCall magazine golden mike award, led an informal discussion, making suggestions and answering questions concerning fashion, social behavior, grooming and other topics of interest to the young ladies as they enter junior high school and their teen years.

Also on the program, planned by Mrs. George Smith, were brief talks by Miss Brusie and Mrs. Rue, and choral music by the students.

The girls were presented corsages created by Mrs. John Green, Mrs. B. K. Sanden, Mrs. Walter Riley and Mrs. Peter Good.

MEMBERS of the PTA board served as hostesses for the annual party, arranged by Mrs. Charles Ludden and her hospitality committee, Mrs. Henry Merker, Mrs. James Rison, Mrs. Mitchell Foster, Mrs. Ralph Nurgie and Mrs. Peter Hilder.
