

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM R. WOOD

St. Columban Church Is Scene of Wedding

Ann Christine Birrell and William Raymond Wood exchanged wedding vows and rings Saturday morning in St. Columban church. Rev. Thomas M. Kenny performed the eleven o'clock rites in the presence of 100 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Frank L. Birrell of Webster street, Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Byers of Berkeley are parents of the groom.

As matron of honor for her sister, Mrs. Duane Johnson of Pontiac wore a dress of white organza with a floor length train of lace and nylon tulle over satin. The lace bodice was styled with short sleeves, and was accented at the neckline by seed pearl rosettes. Lace panels extended from waistline to hem of the tulle hooped skirt.

Her double tiered veil of illusion fell from a lace cap trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Complementing the gown

Garden, Pool of Bigelow Home Setting for Party

The pool and beautiful garden of the Fred Bigelows' home on North Adams road was the setting for a splash party and luncheon given by Mrs. Bigelow and Mrs. Edward Woods of Detroit Saturday afternoon.

The honor guest was Miss Alice Sullivan of Detroit, whose marriage to Philip Stackpole of Grosse Pointe will take place June 22 at Mother of Our Savior chapel in Detroit. Congratulating the bride-to-be were 42 guests, members of the Terrapin club, a club within the Women's City club.

The group enjoyed fruit punch and buffet luncheon on the patio with its gay umbrellas and colorful lounge furniture before a dip in the pool. The picturesque pool with its diving board at each end is framed with a pink wall border and a white leather edge. Off to the side is a matching pink bath house, and in the background setting off the towering shrubs and flower gardens is an attractive striped canvas screen.

The Pine Hills bowling league held its annual picnic on June 1, at the Rouge circle home of the Clarence Bundy.

There was much laughter during raw egg throwing game before the rains came and sent the picnickers into the Bundy's garage for the remainder of the day.

The six teams in the league are made up of two couples each and were given names of Dola's Bowlers, Ruth's Goofs, Hindler's Madlers, Segel's Beavers, Mary's Maulers and Lil's Pills. Awards were given to Dola's Bowlers for the high team, Mrs. Lynn Hunter for the high singles award and Mrs. Clarence Bundy won the high three games. Before the end of the evening the remainder of the group left with some type of an award.

The menu of the day consisted of steaks, cold salad, baked potatoes, scalloped potatoes and a variety of pies. Cocktails were enjoyed through the evening hours.

Residents on Rouge circle enjoyed their second annual Memorial day picnic last night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George Yatch this year. Twelve couples and their children joined in the active day. Highlighting the evening hours were the two large bonfires and the songs that were sung around them. The group has decided to continue the outing each year.

The Osage Garden club, branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association, held its annual picnic at the Betty road home of Mrs. James Charters June 3.

Highlighting the afternoon was a unique hat fashion show and contest, with each member creating her own. There were hats of all descriptions, some appearing with salads on their heads, others with hats done in whipped cream and flowers and still others with hats topped with cottage cheese, cabbage leaves and bells from Christmas ornaments.

The five members taking top honors included Mrs. C. M. Maxwell for the "most beautiful." Her creation was of pink frosting with shredded coconut and blue forget-me-nots and flowers. Mrs. William Arrand was runner up with a strong won for the award for the "funniest." Hers was a bun barrel filled with lettuce and peaking out of the lettuce was a worming out with a knife through it. Incidently the worm was artificial.

Honors for the most "original" went to Mrs. Ray Roberts for her sombrero with cigarettes dangling around the brim. Packages of name brand cigarettes formed the crown and perched on the top was an ash tray with a cigarette in it. The "most edible" was Mrs. Robert Clark's chapeau with its

Fresne-Manning Nuptials Solemnized Friday Evening

Five attendants in Nile green silk organza and lace gowns preceded Margaret Waddell Manning down the aisle of Christ Church Cranbrook for her marriage Friday evening to Donald Clifford Fresne. Rev. Robert L. DeWitt solemnized the ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. William Hewson Manning of Fairway drive, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Manning, wore a wedding gown of white silk mousseline de soie. Be-embroidered alençon lace wreathed the gown's scooped neckline and trailed across the front and back of the dome-shaped skirt. Her four tiered veil of silk illusion was caught to an alençon lace cap. Lilies-of-the-valley made up her bouquet.

MAID OF HONOR was Frances

Mrs. Marshall Potter entertained at a "coffee" in her Butternut Hill drive home on June 5, honoring her mother, Mrs. W. E. Bell, who was visiting from Scarsdale, N. Y. Mrs. Bell returned to her home in "Ted" Smith and Mrs. Donald Hoskins of Charnwood. The tea was sponsored by the Rochester Garden Club, a branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association and was one of the last teas slated before closing the estate.
