At Telegraph and Square Lake

A 30-STORE SHOPPING CENTER has been planned for construction at the northwest corner of Telegraph and Square Lake road, it was announced this week by Bernard Edelman Associates, Inc., of Detroit, real estate investors and developers. This sketch (above) reflects the style of the development, which has been named the Bloomfield Strip. With 1,500 feet frontage on Telegraph, the Strip is directly across the street from the Miracle Mile, also an Edelman development.

Skating Rink Gets $6,100 in Funds To Cover Deficit

The Birmingham city commission has appropriated $6,100 from the contingent fund to cover a deficiency in operation expenses of the Eton park skating rink incurred during the past season.

Revenue totaled $17,286.51, accounting to J. H. Purkins, Jr., director of finance, while expenses to date reached $23,185.22, resulting in a current deficiency of $5,898.71.

The appropriation was asked to clear the amount due the general fund. An unexpended funds after June 30 will be returned to the general fund with costs incurred after that date paid by the budgetation board under its 1957-58 budget.
