Runaway Horse Killed by Auto On Northwestern

SOUTHFIELD—Gloom descended upon the Joseph LaLonia house- hold last Thursday in place of the happiness that should have accompanied the graduation of their daughter, Mary Jo, from eighth grade at St. Michael's Catholic school.

That same evening a horse, Poncy, 18, pulled loose its stake in the LaLonia backyard and dashed away to die in col-lision with an auto on Northwest-ern highway.

NANCY, of 20190 Norwood, told southfield police the horse became frightened by the trailing stake and galloped off.

The five-year-old Bay was killed instantly when it collided with a car driven by Morris Ruskin, 38, of Detroit. Ruskin told police he was traveling southeast on North-western near Nine Mile road at 45 mph, when the accident happened. Damage to Ruskin's car was es-timated at $350.

Franklin

QUINCE agreed that if another qualified individual could be found who would be willing to assume responsibility at no additional cost to the village, he would be given consideration.

Mitchell intimated that he was acting in best conscience but was weary of resistance and would be willing to turn the job over.

PROPOSED annual budget was discussed at a public hearing which will be held June 24 in the village offices.

The item of rubbish collection has been increased from $1,500 to $2,100, resulting from bids taken.

Franklin Volunteer fire depart-ment contribution of $600 an annual assessment fund created.

Quince agreed that the first depart-ment has been very successful in raising funds through their own billing and that village funds might be more effectively used in other areas of concern.

TOTAL ANNUAL budget es-timated amounts to approximately $15,400 and anticipated income coincides with that figure.

Some effort was made to act on recommendations requiring new con-struction to include culverts and drains upon application for build-ing permits.

The matter was tabled pending study by Councilman Dan Hunter, Homer Hyde and building depart-ment chief Walt Rodgers who have been assigned to study the matter. If such provisions could be merely included in the existing building code, the saving cost of addi-tional publishing.

Water authority chief, Don Eg-bert, will be invited to attend the next regular council meeting, July 10, to discuss future water supplies.

Homer Hyde was voted tempo-rary deputy clerk while Mrs. Hauk, village clerk, is away on vacation from June 26 to July 15.

Three Franklin Circles Plan June Meetings

FRANKLIN—Light, unincor-porated meetings have been sched-uled for the members of the three circles for the Franklin Commu-nity church this month.

Monday the Fellowship circle will gather at the swimming pool of Mrs. Norman Krieder, 2860 Millbrook road, Woodcrest Farms for a special party and picnic luncheon starting at 12:30 p.m.

A brief business meeting and picnic luncheon at the home of Mrs. Dalton Sirtan, 6688 Bloom-field lane, Wednesday, is the agenda for members of Trinity circle, beginning at 12:30 p.m. with Mrs. Paul Ziegelbauer as-sisting the hostess.

A book review of Josephine Lawrence's "The Empty Nest" will be presented to members of the Evening circle next Thursday, by Mrs. Erich Grosse of Wayne.

The book is suggested as light summer reading and deals with situations of a grown-up family whose various members revisit their homestead. Mrs. Grosse was a member of the Detroit confer-ence of women's societies for Christian service in the Methodist church.

The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Coleman Porter, 2870 Southbrook lane, starting at 8:15 p.m., with Mrs. John McLean, Mrs. Norman Bielsky and Mrs. Viney Keenan assisting the hostess.

Drafting Pool Law

SOUTHFIELD—Trustee Thomas M. Costello has promised to draft a swimming pool ordinance for board consideration in view of the many pools being constructed in Southfield. Main reason for the ordinance is to protect a pres-ervation of youngsters from drown-ing.

Lathrup Opens Bids For Sewer Cleaning

LATHRUP—Four sewer clean-out bids opened by city council Monday night were referred to Robert Norris of Ayer, Lewis, Norris and May, engineers, for recom-mendation.

Bids, which ranged from $10,339 to $18,831, are for cleanout of 24,158 feet of city sewers.

Councilman Richard N. Coger and Councilwoman Elizabeth Mit-chel, who wanted immediate ac-ceptance of a bid so work could begin, voted "no" on the motion to have Norris analyze bids.

Break Ground for St. Bede's School

GROUND-BREAKING ceremonies for a six classroom school building at St. Bede's Catholic school, 12 Mile and Southfield, took place Sunday at 1 p.m. when Dr. Gerald Fitzgerald, 28265 Eldorado, Lathrup, and Rev. Cyril J. Keating turned over the first spadeful of dirt. Dr. Fitzgerald and R. C. Walter, 18810 Dolores, helped plan the school.

Postpone Decision On School's Request To Use Tele-Sewer

BLOOMFIELD—Township board tabled a request by Bloom-field Hills school district to tap into a sanitary sewer which runs from Quanton road along Tele-graph to Maple.

School board members, if grant-ed permission to use the Telegraph sewer, would then extend the line to service a new junior high school planned for construction at Quar-anton and Wing Lake roads.

BEAUTIFUL COLONIAL HOME

Surrounded by silver spruce, majestic pines, stately elms and century old oaks

The Entrance leads into an impressive foyer which welcomes you to a spacious, bright living room . . . distinctive dining room and intimate library. There is also a powder room off the foyer.

To add a note of cheer during long winter evenings, there are woodburning fireplaces in the living room, dining room and library as well as in the master bedroom.

For comfortable Spring and Summer living there is a large screened porch opening off the living room plus a delightful patio, arched with grape vines.

The early American kitchen and breakfast area have been modernized. There is a handy china and silver annex . . . a disposal, refrigerator and a modern electric range with functional solid brass hood.

The second floor includes a large master suite overlooking the rolling fairways of Bloomfield Hills Country Club, built-in wardrobes, vanity, private bath and fireplace are some of the outstanding features. In addition there are three family bedrooms and bath. Servant's quarters consist of two bedrooms and a bath which are reached by stairs leading from the kitchen.

An unusual feature of this suburban home is the large studio or hobby room on the third floor. Plenty of attic and storage space plus lavatory.

This delightful, 3.7 acre wooded estate is convenient to transportation, shopping, schools and churches. We invite your inspection.

Southfield CD Undertakes Blood Typing Program

SOUTHFIELD—Cost of blood typing through Southfield Civil Defense organization has dropped from $2 each to 50¢ each, according to Mrs. Lynn Hershey, director.

Results of a questionnaire issued to parents through the schools indicated over 400 children and adults would have their blood typed under the CD program.

Any resident in the area may go to the Park Clinical laboratory at 15301 Nine Mile road, Oak Park, and show a driver's license or other identification to prove they live in Southfield, in order to get the reduced price.

HOURS ARE Monday through Friday from 9:30 to 6 p.m. and on Saturdays from 9:30 to 2 p.m.

Mrs. Hershey said blood typing done in past years by the State are no longer on record, and for emergency purposes, all Southfield residents should take advantage of the civil defense blood typing program.
