June Bride-Elect Feted At Showers

Ann May Yoss who will become the bride of George Macaulay Tomlinson Saturday was honored at several pre-nuptial events in the past month.

A surprise bride shower was given by Mrs. Jack Sitta of Buckingham, Birmingham. Ann was presented bridge gifts by club members. Mrs. Theodore Etter of Lakeside and Mrs. Joseph Wheeler were hostesses at a personal shower and luncheon at Mrs. Etter's home. The tables were decorated with pink flowers and table cloths.

Bridesmaids and friends attended a personal shower given by Gwen Smith and Barbara Polin at the home of Miss Smith on Red Maple lane.

To conclude the showers, Ann May was also feted at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Thomas Usher and Mrs. J. Roger Brown at the home of Mrs. Usher.

Home Tips Given At Restrict Lumber Open House Party

Restrict Lumber company, 425 Eton, Birmingham, is staging an open house for the benefit of families planning home-remodeling and home-improvement work this summer, according to Tom Restrict, secretary-treasurer of the company. Restrict's remodeling round-up will be staged June 13, 14 and 15 from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. at their Detroit plant located at 14400 Wyoming.

The open house will be a miniature home show with a Western flair, and will include a ranch-style beauty queen, "Miss Round-Up". New types of pre-finished paneling, ceiling tile, interior and exterior paints and wood finishes, Formica do-it-yourself demonstrations, folding door and new types of door hardware, a new liquid bonding agent for re-surfacing concrete, some of which are being shown for the first time, will be featured.
