

Ready, Aim—Squirt!

The gun is loaded, but it's all a game which Charles N. Blunt, of 2580 Bradley boulevard, Bloomfield Village, and Pat Before, of 255 Linden, Birmingham are participating in here. Looking on (center) is Arthur D. Chantler, of 2139 Yorkshire. The gun's ammunition is water, and the girl on the swing is one of the carnival events Village Players enjoyed at their "Curtain Call Carnival" Saturday night. Squirt gun wielders won a prize if they could put out the cigarette Pat was smoking at the end of a long holder. Pat wore a bathing suit for "swinging in the rain." Players climaxed their 33rd season with the party, at which they had supper on the lawn outside the Playhouse, watched a half-hour of "nift-ties", then vied for prizes at the 11 carnival booths before the late-evening dancing began.
