

Ceremony Performed in Illinois

MRS. SHELTON W. WRIGHT

Nancy Pershing Ryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Ryan of Moline, Ill., became the bride of Shelton W. Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Wright, 1286 Club drive, Bloomfield Hills, in a Saturday noon ceremony in the First Presbyterian church in East Moline, Ill.

The bride's gown was fashioned of white organza designed with a sabrina neckline, fitted bodice, elbow length puff sleeves and a full waist length skirt. Her shoulder length veil was attached to an orange blossom crown which was worn by the bride's maternal grandmother at her wedding in 1892, and by her mother in 1918. A bouquet of white geraniums completed the bridal picture.

CAROL STECHOW of Grand Rapids, was maid of honor. She wore a waist length gown of yellow eyelet over taffeta featuring a sabrina neckline. She carried a bouquet of yellow daisies.

Barry Parson of Pontiac, was best man. Ushers were Newell Wright, brother of the groom, and Edward Wing, cousin of the groom, of Evanston, Ill. Mrs. Ryan wore a blue linen dress with pink accessories. The groom's mother wore a blue lace dress with white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white roses.

The wedding reception was at Short Hill country club in East Moline, Ill., immediately following the ceremony.

Nancy chose a two-piece beige suit with brown accessories for their honeymoon to northern Mich. The couple will make their home in Great Neck, N. Y.

Rockford Alums Attend Potluck

Mrs. John Warner, 1861 Lakeside, Birmingham, was hostess at a potluck supper last Wednesday for members of the Rockford college Alumnae club.

Rockford is one of the oldest women's colleges in the country, having just completed its 110th year. It was chartered in northern Illinois in 1847, and has since then attracted students not only from the middle west, but all over the world.

The Rockford Alumnae club of Detroit has been an active organization for 25 years. Alumnae of the area participate in the affairs of the college, and among one of the many recent developments is the formation of a coordinate college for men—Rockford Men's college.

Wednesday night marked the third annual pot-luck supper given at Mrs. Warner's. Attending were Rockford Alumnae from Detroit, Grosse Pointe, Ann Arbor, Plymouth, and Birmingham.
