

Sixth Graders Camp To Study Nature

So successful was the camping program inaugurated by Adams school sixth grade instructor Charles Welch that this year all ten Birmingham elementary schools' sixth graders went camping.

Altogether 480 students spent one week at Proud lake camp near Wixom, Mich. this spring, with Terry and Pembroke schools taking their turn last Monday through Friday.

When the Adams school camping began two years ago under Mr. Welch, it was discovered that students learned about science and nature more effectively when the lessons were out of doors.

THE CAMPING ALSO enabled teachers to get closer to their students in the friendly informal atmosphere of the camp.

This year sixth grade teachers who wanted to teach students outdoors attended monthly sessions on school camping. Many took a course in outdoor education offered by the board of education.

In each school parents voted on sending their children to camp at a cost of $12 per child for food and lodging.

While camp, classes were split into groups, and each had its turn at KP duty. Each day, from 9 to 11 a.m., after breakfast and the tidying of the camp dormitories, and from 2 to 4 p.m., groups participated in archery, conservation projects, tree pruning, soil studies, art and working on a permanent nature trail being set up by Birmingham schools.

WHILE FRANKLIN school's Principal Edwin Crandell dips a cup to take a sample of pond water, Franklin and Walnut Lake school campers watch with interest. Educational as well as recreational projects were scheduled in the school camping program.

AN HOUR OF evaluation of the period. The day wound up with day's learnings was spent with games and singing after dinner, counselors after each activities. Each school's students were usually accompanied by two or three classroom teachers, an art teacher, physical education or music teacher, school nurse, student teachers, conservation officers, county and state agricultural agents.

The head ranger of Proud lake, Al Massini, said he likes to have Birmingham groups in his camps, because they cause no difficulties whatsoever.
