Evanson, Ill., and the late Mr. Callahan. Seated to the right were Edward Manuel of Ann Arbor and William Brasher of Royal Oak.

FOR THE WEDDING and breakfast reception at her home, Mrs. Adams greeted guests in costume suit of powder blue Italian silk with matching chiffon accents. Her hat was of small white and white alstroemeria was clipped to her beaded bag.

OUT-OF-TOWN wedding guests included Mrs. Eugene L. Porter of Galveston, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tyrrell, Irene Bear and Mrs. Emmett K. Tyrrell of Chicago.

Judith Meidell Richard Gregory

In a four-thirty o'clock ceremony Friday afternoon, Judith Meidell, daughter of the William Jacob Meidells of Detroit, became the bride of Richard Bruce Gregory, son of the Amos Franklin Gregories of Dorchester street, Birmingham.

The double-ring rites were performed in Mayflower Congregational church, in the presence of the immediate families.

Mrs. Wesley Taylor, Jr., of Glenham, N. Y., was her sister's matron of honor. Amos Gregory, Jr., attended his brother.

A WALTZ length dress of white georgette lace was Judith's choice for the wedding and family dinner that followed at Dearborn Inn. Trimmed with boat neckline and three-quarter sleeves, the gown was worn with a lace cap and shoulder length veil. She carried a white prayer book topped by a white orchid.

The honor matron's ensemble was a blue silk organza princess style dress, matching shoes and ribbon headpiece, and pink neogay bouquet.

The newlyweds will make their home in Birmingham.

Janet Sweeney Patrick Longe

Janet Marie Sweeney and Patrick J. Longe exchanged wedding vows and rings in an eleven o'clock ceremony Saturday morning at St. Hugo of the Hills church.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Roy S. Rogers, is the daughter of Mrs. Joseph A. Sweeney of Hickory road, Bloomfield Hills, and the late Mr. Sweeney. Mrs. Gilbert A. Clemens of Devon Cables Court, Bloomfield Hills, is the mother of the groom. His father was the late Thomas Longe.

AFTER a breakfast reception at Oakland Hills country club, Janet and Patrick left on a motor trip to Farmington country club, Charlottesville, Va. The bride's going away costume was a navy blue silk sheath dress trimmed in white, complemented by a blue and white sailor hat. The young couple will reside in Birmingham upon their return.

AS MAID of honor for her twin sister, Jane Ann Sweeney wore a sheath dress of white lace over navy green tulle. The back view of the dress was enhanced by a matching tulle butterfly bow. A circular veil, in the navy green shade trimmed her hat.

Guests from out of town included the groom's grandmother, Mrs. H. A. Jordan, and Mrs. Alan Oldfather, of Kearney, Mrs. Richard

DR. RICHARD H. Oldfather came from San Antonio, Texas, to be his brother's best man. Another brother, Alan, of Kearney, Neb., and John Olsson of Lincoln, Neb., served as ushers.

Mrs. Harris selected a white halter over blue dress, and pinned pink and blue delphinium to her purse. Pink delphinium was carried by the mother of the groom with her dress of blue cotton.

Guests from out of town included the groom's grandmother, Mrs. H. A. Jordan, and Mrs. Alan Oldfather, of Kearney, Mrs. Richard

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. CAN C. Culp of Detroit. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Walter of Ypsilanti, Michigan.

Wilma chose a gown fashioned of nylon tulle and imported chantilly lace, featuring long sleeves, stand up collar. Glowing sequins covered the bodice. She wore, for something old, a cameo brooch that belonged to her great-grandmother. A crown of seed pearls held in place her veil of lace and sequins. She carried a bouquet of staphanotis.

Mrs. Joyce Phillips Ross of North Augusta, S. C., was Wilma's mother of honor. Bridesmaids were Diane Buckman, Virginia Johnson and Marie Ednah of Detroit, and Susan Nelson of Farmington.

Attendees were dressed alike in blue crystalite floor length gowns. They wore matching halo hats with nose veils and carried yellow roses.

MIKE PHILLIPS of Columbus, Ohio, was best man. Ushers were James Walter, brother of the groom, Allan Morton, cousin of groom, of Oakmont, Pa., Bill McMillan of Green Hills, Ohio, and Ron Larewell of Farmington.

Mrs. Culp chose a blue lace floor length gown with matching hat and gloves and white staphanotis and yellow roses. The groom's mother wore a pink lace gown with matching hat and white gloves and carnations.

Following the reception in the Fellowship Hall of the church, the couple left for a honeymoon to the Smoky mountains. For traveling Wilma wore a green dress with yellow and brown accessories.

OUT-OF-TOWN guests included Isabel Harding of Windsor, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. Norman Good, of Flint, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. March of Barberton, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Pratt of Swartz Creek, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hezel of Bellow Falls, Vermont, Mr. and Mrs. James Kaningo and son Paul, of Grand Rapids.

Still others were Mrs. Green Hills, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Phillips of Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Scott Culp of Mesador, Mich., Mrs. Audrey Camp of Leonidas, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Miller of Colon, Mich.

Diane Harris C. E. Oldfather

Upon returning from a Canadian honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Oldfather will take up residence in Lincoln, Nebraska. They were united in marriage Saturday evening in Grace Chapel of St. Paul's Cathedral, Detroit.

The bride, the former Diane Crawford Harris, has been teaching at Bloomfield Hills high school, is the daughter of Mrs. Frank W. Harris of South Bate, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Harris. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Oldfather of Kansas, Nebraska, are parents of the groom.

MEMBERS of the immediate families and close friends witnessed the ceremony solemnized by Rev. E. Howard McClintock. It was followed by a garden reception at the home of the Homer Clark on Broadway boulevard, Bloomfield village.

Val lace edged the scooped neckline, three quarter sleeves and triple tiers of Diane's white organza bride gown. Her elbow length illusion veil was held by a lace cap. White and blush pink roses composed her bouquet.

As her sister's only attendant, Frances Harris carried blue delphinium and pink daisies with her blue organza street length dress. A band of white lace outlined the gown's empire bodice. Blue shoes and a headband of pink daisies completed her costume.

Guests from out of town included the groom's grandmother, Mrs. H. A. Jordan, and Mrs. Alan Oldfather, of Kearney, Mrs. Richard Guests were ushered by Thomas Longe, John Sweeney, Donnelly Sweeney, Richard Condit and Lawrence Stock. James Longe was best man.

Mrs. Sweeney attended her daughter's wedding in a pale pink lace sheath dress and matching hat of flower petals. A dusty rose ensemble was the choice of the groom's mother.

Linder-Fioravera Vows

NORTH ADAMS—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Linder of Westchester road, Bloomfield township, traveled to Leonia, N. J., last week to be present for the marriage of their son, Peter Earl, to Jeanette Bettina Fioravera. The 8 o'clock rites were read in the Presbyterian church by the Rev. A. Paul Noble.

A wedding reception was at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John James Fioravera, 103 Christie street, Leonia, N. J.

THE BRIDE chose a gown fashioned of embroidered organza over tulle with a chapel train. A finger tip illusion veil was secured by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of white roses and staphanotis.

Her twin sister, Jeanine, maid of honor, wore a floor-length gown of white tulle over pale green tulle and carried a basket of light pink sweetheart roses, and wore a matching flower wreath in her hair.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Cullen and Suzanne Mingle, both of Leonia. They wore matching hats of deep pink sweetheart roses and wore similar wreaths in their hair.

Best man was Kenneth Bruce Cushman of Yonkers, N. Y. Ushers were Peter Youmans of Leonia, and Donald Genaro of Fort Lee.

The couple are both graduates of the Art School of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, where they received their degrees, Bachelor of Industrial Design, two weeks ago. After a honeymoon trip to Coral Gables, Fla., they will reside in Detroit.
