Marilyn Toben—John Vise

Shrine of the Little Flower Chapel was the scene of the Saturday morning marriage of Marilyn Bridge Toben and John Harvey Vise.

Rev. Walter Bracken performed the double ring ceremony for the daughter of the George C. Toben of Berkeley and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Vise of Royal Oak, former residents of Birmingham.

MARILYN carried a nosegay of white roses signed with long sleeves, sabrina neckline and very full, gathered floor length skirt. Seed pearls trimmed the matching cap securing her veil.

Miscela Vise served as honor attendant, carrying blue and white daisies in a white basket to complement her ballerina length white crystal-ette gown accented by a blue cummerbund. A headdress of daisies, and white shoes and gloves completed her costume.

Andrew Balent of Detroit stood as best man; Harold Spohars of Detroit ushered.

MRS. TOBEN wore a Dior blue outfit, and the mother of the groom selected a powder blue ensemble. Their coronets were fashioned of white carnations and stephanotis.

After a wedding breakfast for members of the immediate families and wedding party, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon at Potawatomi Inn in Indiana.

Ann Arbor will be their home.
