Graefield-Derby Mrs. Morgan Inaugurates New Patio with Luncheon

A sunny, balmy day was the scene for Mrs. William Morgan of 1554 Witherbee road, Troyton Manor, to inaugurate her new patio to entertain some of her neighbors for luncheon. Keeping with the summery atmosphere, Mrs. Morgan served fruit salad in half melon shells, dessert and iced tea.

Those enjoying the gathering and few leisure hours were Mrs. Howard Ross, Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mrs. Myron Fisher, Mrs. Richard Montley, Mrs. Vernon Hoeting, Mrs. William Collawn and Mrs. James Boyce.

Mrs. Noel Mudd of 1653 Graefield road entertained her monthly bridge group recently in her home. Mrs. Art Kaufman, Mrs. Leland Morgan, Mrs. Carl Lund, Mrs. Edward Larson, Mrs. Homer Fletcher, Mrs. Ellsworth Fish, and Mrs. Harold Stanton were seated at the table.

Dessert and coffee were served the women by Mrs. Mudd preceding the game.

A long weekend away from the children's yard work was spent last week by Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Thompson of 1031 Norwich road and Mrs. Richard Miner of 1064 Norwich road at the St. Clair Inn.

From the general relaxation and quiet atmosphere of the inn, the couples took in some golf and swam at the country club.

The Memorial Day weekend gave Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lund and son Mickey a chance to visit Mrs. Lund in Exeland, Wis. On their way there they took the ferry from Ludington to Keweenaw and upon their return, toured the upper peninsula and crossed the straits by ferry thus seeing the newly completed Mackinac bridge.

Miss Sandy Dennis was guest of honor for her seventh birthday party recently. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dennis of 1669 Witherbee road, invited relatives and friends in for the happy occasion.

Helping Sandy celebrate were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Porter, and son Stephen, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Phillips, Miss Geraldine Porter, and brothers Charlie, Jeff and Mark.

After Mrs. Dennis served the ice cream and cake and Sandy opened her many exciting gifts, slides were shown by Mr. Dennis of northern Michigan in summer and winter scenery.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burch of 1584 Witherbee road have as houseguest Mr. Burch's mother, Mrs. L. H. Burch, from Morris Plains, N. J.

This is the first opportunity Mrs. Burch has had to see her new 3-month-old granddaughter, Kathryn Anne and thus is spending all the time she can with her while here.

Bobby Winegarden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Winegarden of 2350 Derby road, was host to some of his neighbors and school friends on his sixth birthday recently.

Those helping Bobby celebrate were Lynn Roddy, Elling Ring, Terry and Tim Maganello, Pat Gun, Connie Benson, Gail Jacobson, John Winegarden, his brother, and Mike Hoffer.

The motif of the afternoon was cowboys. The group enjoyed winning special prizes for the games they played and then Mrs. Winegarden served ice cream and cake before sending each home laden down with favors and thoughts of the fun they had.

An annual trip was taken recently by Mr. and Mrs. John Ricardo and children Mary Kay, Terri, and Lynn, of 590 Norwich road, Troyton Manor, to visit Ricardo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ricardo, of Little Falls, N. Y. Upon their return, they were pleasantly surprised to be greeted by Mrs. Ricardo's mother, Mrs. Golda Fife, from Grosse Pointe, who had just returned from an extended trip to Europe, Africa and Portugal. Mrs. Ricardo and Mrs. Fife are now enjoying hours of talking and sending through the numerous gifts and souvenirs Mrs. Fife brought back with her.

Newcomers to 1712 Graefield road are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Iverson and 16-month-old daughter Dale. They hail from Ann Arbor. Iverson attended the University of Michigan and was affiliated with the Beta Theta Pi fraternity. He is now practicing law in Detroit with the firm of Iverson and Altier.

A member of the Tri Delta sorority, Mrs. Iverson attended Ohio Wesleyan university in Delaware, Ohio, and the University of Michigan.

Both will enjoy some golfing in their spare time this summer.

Mrs. William Drie of 967 Brooklawn road entertained her neighborhood bridge club last week. The group included Mrs. James Trew, Mrs. Ford Banes, Mrs. Robert Sims, Mrs. William Vocht, Mrs. Richard Benson, Mrs. Robert Welch and Mrs. Paul Nelson.

As the women enjoyed their dessert and coffee preceding the bridge game they talked about summer plans now that the children would soon be out of school.

Jackie Kleene of Derby road entertained his schoolmates in his backyard for their annual class picnic recently. The children enjoyed eating their box lunches and playing games.

Pembroke Elementary school held its annual band concert recently in their auditorium. Some of the talent from this area were Virginia Van Cleef and Mary Sieland, who played a flute, duct, and Kirk Bundy and Joe Elliot, Greg Coates, Winifred Williams, Sue Horning, Carol Dunham who combined their talents for an enchanting band ensemble. The glee club under the direction of Sally Sparkman sang many beautiful songs.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Otto of Witherbee road, Troyton Manor, motored to East Lansing last week to attend their alma mater, East Lansing high school's class reunion. It was East Lansing's 50th anniversary.

While there, they visited both their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis F. Cook and Mrs. James R. Otto, who celebrated Otto's birthday with family dinners.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kleene of Derby road entertained for their son Steve for his fifth birthday June 9. Joining in on the festivities were Margaret, Chuck and Mary Lou Green, Susie Simpson, Peggy Beverly, Wayne and Windy Webster, Kim Smith, cousin Jeff Penny and Kathy Hieber and his brother, Jackie.

The children enjoyed lunch and birthday cake and ice cream. A grab bag held the many lovely favors and added an extra touch to the afternoon activities.

to the afternoon activities. Mrs. Maurice Reardon of 1076 Brooklawn court held an informal get together of the sewing group from her section preparing for the Holy Name church bazaar. Those seen with needle in hand were Mrs. Maurice Baumann, Mrs. Harry Barnes, Mrs. James Carey, Mrs. Hugh Soufy, Mrs. Judson Decker, Mrs. Leo Clougherty, Mrs. Donald Nandy, Mrs. Robert Kaufman and Mrs. Harry Leath-
